

SOUTHERN ADVOCATE

Huntsville, Alabama

May 6, 1825

"MESSERS JOSEPH MOORE, late soldier in ALLAN's Company of 17th Regiment of Infantry and ROBERT HIGGINS, late soldier in CAPT. PHILIPS Company of Artillery and their legal representatives are informed that on authority of papers intrusted to my charge, I have obtained patents for their bounty land, situated in Arkansas Territory. Not knowing by laws of the Territory their lands will at a certain period be liable to be sold for the taxes, I have thought proper to convey to those interested the above information."
