Died at his residence in Madison County, Alabama on the 14th of October, BROTHER ADAM DALE in his 84th year. He was born in Worcester County, Maryland July 14, 1768; married POLLY HALE February 24, 1790, left Maryland in the spring of 1797 and settled in Davidson County, Tennessee, where Nashville is now situated; removed to Smith County, Tennessee October, 1801 and united with the Presbyterian Church known as Craigheads; from Smith County he moved to Columbia, Maury County, Tennessee in 1829 and realizing he had never been baptized, he joined a church known as Miller's Church; from Maury County, Tennessee, he moved to Madison County, Alabama in December, 1840.... Deacon in Baptist Church... left several children and grandchildren as well as an aged consort.... This aged wife he leaves behind was POLLY HALE, daughter of JORDAN and SOPHIA HALE, who resided in Delaware, Sussex County.

Brother DALE at the age of 15 years was a volunteer in a company raised in his county consisting wholly of boys of his age or near about it to endeavor to arrest progress of CORNWALLIS; he commanded a company of volunteers raised in Tennessee and fought bravely and successfully in the Creek War and at the battle of Horseshoe. He was wounded, his company in the thickest of the fight and stood whole force of enemy for 40 minutes until reinforced by JACKSON. His son, THOMAS DALE was a volunteer with him in the same war....
