PAULINE JONES GANDRUD

The late Pauline Jones Gandrud was born May 9, 1904, in Huntsville, Alabama, the daughter of George Walter and Elvalena (Moore) Jones. Both paternal and maternal ancestors from Virginia were some of the earliest settlers of Madison County, Alabama, dating from about 1803 to 1809. After graduating from Wills Prep School in Huntsville, Alabama, in 1921, she studied two years at the Peabody Conservatory of Music in Baltimore as a piano pupil of Pasquale Tallarico and subsequently taught music for several years.

In Huntsville, Alabama, on November 29, 1930, Pauline Jones married Bennie William Gandrud, a mining engineer with the U.S. Bureau of Mines on the university campus at Tuscaloosa. They had one son, William Bentley Gandrud, born August 18, 1939, in Birmingham. A graduate of the University of Alabama with a Ph.D. in Physics from Johns Hopkins University, he is currently a physicist and supervising engineer at the Bell Telephone Laboratory in Atlanta, Georgia.

After becoming interested in the subject of genealogy at the early age of 17, she was encouraged to continue this interest by her sister-in-law, Kathleen Paul Jones. Together they collaborated in the researching and typing of Alabama county records until Kathleen's death in December, 1967.

Mrs. Gandrud has given lectures for many groups, some of which are the Virginia Genealogical Society, Richmond, Virginia; the Central Texas Genealogical Society, Waco, Texas (workshop); the Ft. Worth Genealogical Society, Ft. Worth, Texas; the Alabama Historical Society, Selma, Alabama; the East Alabama Genealogical Society, Gadsden, Alabama; the Alabama Genealogical Society, Birmingham, Alabama; the Birmingham Genealogical Society, Birmingham, Alabama; and about 15 local clubs (Tuscaloosa). Mrs. Gandrud died unexpectedly in September, 1980, at her home in Tuscaloosa.

Work on this book on marriages, deaths and legal notices from Alabama newspapers was started some three to four years ago when the publisher and the compiler of these records discussed putting them into book form.

Previously, these valuable newspaper records had appeared throughout the 245-volume collection of Alabama Records done by Mrs. Gandrud and her sister-in-law, and therefore, one would have to scan this whole series of Alabama books to, hopefully, find some information relating to a member of his or her family.

Mrs. Gandrud finally decided that the best thing for her to do would be to pull these newspaper records from each of the volumes in which they appeared from Alabama Records and send them to the publisher to Xerox in preparation for this book.

When these records were being sorted and arranged for the typist, it was extremely difficult to decide on the exact format and arrangement that these records should appear in, since so many different newspapers were involved over this eighty-year period. A decision was made to try to arrange the records in chronological order by newspaper and by genealogical region. This format did not always follow in each instance, but with over 1500 Xeroxed pages of copy to try to arrange, and in the time frame allotted to do this, we did the best we could.

We have provided a table of contents listing the name of each newspaper that records were taken from and years for said paper. This does not necessarily mean that if you see 1820-1821, that every issue for those two years is included, as Mrs. Gandrud may have only found data on one or two months in each of those years. Your publisher does not know whether records for these newspapers exist in their entirety, since we have worked only with what Mrs. Gandrud had abstracted.

WETUMPKA ARGUS AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER

Published and printed in Elmore County, Alabama (Courtesy of Department of Archives)

May 15, 1839

It is with deep regret that the citizens of Wetumpka are called upon to pay the final tribute of respect to the memory of their late and highly esteemed fellow citizen: M.D. STIMPSON, Esq. late Editor of the "Argus and Sentinel" published in this city, who departed this life after a long and lingering illness on Tuesday the 7th inst., aged 33 years. Mr. STIMPSON was a Scotchman by birth, born at Dundee Scotland AC 1804 and came to this country accompanied by his family in 1831 and has been a resident of this city for the last four years, during which time many offices of public trust were conferred upon him, the duties of which he invariably discharged with honor to his adopted country and credit to himself. He was ardently devoted to the Democratic cause, but while he was firm in the support of his political views, he ever demeaned himself with a generosity and a spirit of amenity, that won for him alike the approbation and affection of his friends and opponents. He was an esteemed citizen, and kind and affectionate husband, an indulgent father and a devoted friend, few men indeed could have left a better recollection and a purer name. He has left an esteemed and amiable wife, and three promising children, to mourn his bereavement and his loss! A numerous concourse of our most respected citizens, preceded by the military and the Masonic brethren accompanied the body in procession to the place of interment, where was consigned to the keeping of the dust the last sad remains of mortality; bedued by the tears of regret and consecrated by the greeting emblem of Masonic Brotherhood. Which shall convey him to realms of perennial light. So mote it be.

Died on Sunday the 12th of May 1839 in the city of Wetumpka, ELIZA ALBERTHA, daughter of M.B. and SARAH A. MCCOY, aged one year and eleven days

Read ye that run the awful truth
With which I charge my page
A worm is in the bud of youth
And at the root of age
No present health can health ensue
For yet an hour to come
No medicine though it oft can cure
Can always balk the tomb
Like crowded forest trees we stand
And some are marked to fall
The axe will smite at God's command
And soon shall smite us all.

A meeting of the friends and acquaintances of H. BARROW, deceased, was convened at the Council Chamber, on Friday, 14th inst., when DR. J. BEALL was called to the chair, and J.N. LIGHTNER requested to act as Secretary on motion of W.W. MASON, Esq., a committee, consisting of DR. J.T. REESE, W.A. MCCLUNG and M.M. GORMAN were appointed to draft a paper expressive of the regret of the meeting for the death of Mr. BARROW and of their respect for his memory, the committee after retiring reported as follows: The committee in discharge of their melancholy duty in offering this last tribute of respect to the worth of their departed friend and associate, WILLIAM H. BARROW, can but express their unfeigned grief for his untimely loss; nor can they let this opportunity pass without offering their condolence to his immediate friends and acquaintance, and to his relatives and parents at a distance. The deceased had for some time been ardently engaged in the study of medicine and in preparing himself for future usefulness to his fellow creatures; had he lived, science might have claimed him as one of her brightest ornaments, but an all wise being has ordained it otherwise. Though he died at a distance from those connected with him by the closest ties of our nature, all that kindness, attention, and medical skill could do to avert the hand of the destroyer was extended to him by surrounding friends and the faculty that one so young in life, and who was just about to enter on its active stage, should have been so suddenly snatched away by the rude archer, as if to signalize the certainty of his triumphs over all mortality created in our bosom an anguish which only the remembrance of his real virtues can mitigate by the hope that those virtues will secure to him in another and better world a bliss that knows no ending. To us remains now only the privilege of doing justice to his memory, and commingling our griefs with those of his bereaved parents and relatives, and condoling with them in their loss and affliction,

"But can storied urn or animated bust
Back to its mansion call the fleeting breath
Can honors words provoke the silent dust,
Or flattery sooth the cold dull ear of death."

On motion. Resolved that the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the chairman and Secretary, and published in the city papers, and that a copy be forwarded to the parents of the deceased.

Died on the 18 inst. at his residence in this City, ALDERMAN JAMES W. YARBROUGH in the 38 Year of his age. Thus in the meridian of his life and usefulness has death robbed us of one of our most useful and worthiest citizens. Mr. YARBROUGH emigrated from Jasper County in the State of Georgia to this city in the spring of the year 1837 where by the urbanity of his manners and his upright deportment he won the esteem and confidence of all that knew him. At the first charter election for the city, he was elected Alderman of the ward in which he resided, which office he continued to fill with usefulness to the City and honor and dignity to himself. His heart was the sacred temple of all the social virtues and his home was emphatically the home of hospitality and kindness. The public demonstration of the City Authorities and his numerous friends was but a just tribute to his worth and merit and the proud motto of the poet may be justly inscribed upon his monument. "An honest man, the noblest work of God." (From the Independent Monitor) Page 3, column 1.

Respect to the late REV. ROBERT M. CUNNINGHAM. Pursuant to Notice the citizens of Tuscaloosa assembled at the Town Hall, on Thursday, July 11, 1839 at 11 o'clock, A.M. to take into consideration the most suitable means of paying proper respect to the memory of the late REV. ROBERT M. CUNNINGHAM, when on motion of Mr. C.S. PATERSON, GEN. THOMAS D. KING was called to the chair and R.T. CLYDE appointed Secretary. After the object of the meeting had been stated from the chair on motion it was Resolved that a committee of three be appointed to carry out the intentions of this meeting. Messrs. ERASMUS WALKER, R.M. GARVIN and M.D.J. SLADE were appointed said committee and on motion Messrs. JOHN D. PHELAN and JOEL WHITE were added to the committee. On motion, Resolved that the Committee retire and report immediately. The committee after a short retirement reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted: Whereas, We have recently received intelligence of the deceased of the REV. ROBERT M. CUNNINGHAM. Resolved. By this meeting that we feel it our duty on the melancholy intelligence of the death of our late REV. ROBERT M. CUNNINGHAM, to meet together to give a public expression to the profound respect and high admiration in which we hold the memory of the deceased, and to bear testimony to his spotless character and useful life. As a man, his integrity was above reproach as a christian minister, he was a bright and shining light through a long life: but it as one of that cherished remnant who fought the battle of American liberty in the days "that tried men's souls", that our hearts contemplate the venerable departed worthy; with the loftiest sentiments of love and gratitude. Resolved that we deeply sympathize with his family in their affliction. Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased. Resolved that the citizens of Tuscaloosa, the clergy of the city, the Professors and students of the University, the officers of the State, and the several societies, trades and Professions be respectfully requested to join the procession agreeably to the order of proceeding published by the committee of arrangements at 4 o'clock this afternoon; and that in token of respect to the virtues of the deceased, it be respectfully requested that the stores may be closed, and business suspended at that hour. Resolved, that if it be agreeable to the family of the deceased that the Tuscaloosa Guards be respectfully requested to join the procession in military order. Resolved that a committee of --- be appointed by the Chair to superintend and direct arrangements for the funeral. Whereupon, the chair appointed Messrs. CRABB, KING, BATTLE, J. D. PHELAN, CLYDE J. WHITE and MAJOR LEWEN. Resolved that these proceedings and resolutions be published in the paper of Tuscaloosa.

Died at Washington City, on the 25th ult. COMMODORE DANIEL T. PATTERSON, Commandant of the Navy Yard at that place. His illness was violent and of short duration. The deceased was in the Naval service about forty years, and was a midshipman in the Philadelphia frigate, when she was lost on the Tripolitan Coast in the year 1803. Commodore Patterson was a native of Long Island and at his death was about 58 years of age. General Naval Order: As a Mark of respect to the memory of COM. DANIEL T. PATTERSON, late of the United States Navy, who died at Washington on the 25th inst., the flags of the Navy yard, Stations and vessels of the United States Navy are to be hoisted half mast and nineteen minute guns fired at noon on the day of the receipt of this order. J. CHAUNCEY, Acting Sec. of the Navy, Navy Dept. Army Order: Adjutant General's Office Washington August 27, 1839. The Officers of the Army on duty near the War Department, and those who may be now at the seat of government, are requested to attend in uniform, the funeral of the late DANIEL T. PATTERSON, Commandant of the Washington Navy Yard at 4 o'clock on Wednesday, the 28 inst. R. JONES, ADJUTANT GENERAL.

Died in Augusta on Thursday morning the 4th inst., after a short illness, Mrs. SARAH WALTON, relict of the late JOSIAH WALTON and sister of the late GOVERNOR CLARKE of this state in the 72 year of her age. She had been an exemplary member of the Baptist Church for about thirty five years and contemplated her approaching dissolution with that tranquil resignation and peace of mind, which evinced her preparation for a change of worlds. She retained her senses to the last moment of her existence and aware that her end was approaching, she expressed her willingness to depart in the full assurance that she was about to enter upon higher enjoyments than the present world could possibly afford her. Her children and grandchildren and those who knew her in life will long retain an affectionate remembrance of her worth.

Died in this city on the evening of 22 ult., GEORGE W. MAGHER, Esq. in the 24 year of his age. He was a native of the State of New York.

"Three score years and ten" one departs as it were, because it is reasonable that after having run a long race he should be at rest and that having long battled in the conflicts of each he should be permitted to retire from the field and allowed the opportunity of enjoying the blessings of heaven. He seemed to go, because having performed the duties imposed upon him in this world, he is ready to take upon himself duties of a higher and holier character in another and a better world, but when a young man one who is just entering upon the way is taken from amongst us we are filled with wonder and dismay. When to youth is added health, strength, beauty and grace of person commanding talents, the love of his intimate acquaintance, the good will of all and success in his pursuits; when he possesses all that can render the present agreeable and flattering and all that betokens a bright and brilliant future, when one so gifted and so favored is taken from us before the sun has cleared away the morning twilight of his existence. We feel an utter inability to comprehend the wisdom of the great disposer of human events. Such are our feelings when contemplating the fate of this young man.

He came to this city in Feb. 1838 and soon after commenced the practice of the law. He was very early marked by our observant citizens, as a man eminently calculated to attain success in the great business matters of life. Died of congestive fever on the 14th instant, Mrs. ELIZABETH SORELLE, consort of S. J. SORELLE in the 32 year of her age. Esteemed by all who were privileged with her acquaintance, her loss will no doubt be deeply felt by her relatives and friends, especially in the removal afflictive to her husband and numerous family of children.

Few women discharged more fully the relative duties of wife, mother, and mistress of a family; affection, industry and economy were marked traits in her character. As a christian she gave the brightest evidences of fervent piety. In the fall of 1832, she united with the Baptist Church at Old Town Creek, Dallas County. Since that time it may be said that the house of God was literally her home and the love of Jesus the theme upon which above all others she delighted to dwell. When about a year since, it pleased the Lord to visit this city with showers of refreshing from his presence none was more active, none more ardently engaged at a throne of Grace, than she, who, we thrust, is now united with the worshipping assembly in heaven. During all her illness she retained full possession of her mental faculties. She was sensible some-time previous to her dissolution that death was near, and in answer to an enquiry of her husband, replied, I am perfectly willing to die, I can confidently commit the keeping of my soul into the hands of my Savior, continuing from time to time, to express her confidence in an Almighty Power, at 9 o'clock P.M. she fell asleep in the arms of Jesus.

And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, write blessed are the dead that die in the Lord henceforth! Yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them." Amicus.

Died at the residence of his father in Coosa County on the 21 inst., JAMES A. WALL aged 30 years. He had for the last nine years been severely afflicted with the rheumatism, but permitted at times to enjoy short intervals of ease; his last illness which was of three months duration, was unusually severe, yet not a murmur escaped his lips. Conscious of the near approach of death, he evinced no fear, but on the contrary hailed it as a welcome messenger, as a deliverance from this world of pain and woe to one far more glorious eternal in the skies; never did man die more perfectly resigned to the will of his maker. As a son he was all the parent wish never during his life, giving the least cause for regret; as a neighbor and friend, kind and benevolent to a fault, he was truly the friend of all, possessed of an active and enterprising disposition, with a mind well cultivated, he bid fair, had health been granted him of being an honor to his family and country; but he is gone and that too it is hoped and believed to the bright abode of the just made perfect; long will his loss be felt by his family and numerous friends. Died in this city on Monday night last at 8 o'clock of billious fever, ROBERT L. WHARTON, aged 23 years formerly of Fauquier County, Virginia. In this dispensation of Divine Providence a young wife has been thoroughly bereaved of a kind and affectionate husband, to whom she had been united but a few short months. Mr. WHARTON was a well known and highly esteemed citizen -- industrious, upright and honorable in all his intercourse with his fellow beings, he gave promise of extended usefulness and a long life, which have been cut short by the hand of death. The writer of this short notice has known the subject of it intimately for several years, and can truly say that in all the varied relations of life his character has been irreproachable without a stain. His death is as much regretted by his numerous friends and associates as his life has been upright and useful. But who shall scrutinize the dispensation of the author of our being? L.

Died of congestive fever at the residence of his father near Wetumpka on Sunday Evening 13th instant, AYDELOTT SYNDENHAM, eldest and only son of DR. SAMUEL H. and MARY H. BILLING, aged six years and five months.

He suffered a severe and unremitted illness of five or six days, without murmur or complaint, thus exhibiting the most remarkable patience for one of his age. He was in life amiable, intelligent and dutiful, his father's hope, his mother's joy. But the destroyer came, and claimed him for his own. His spirit has gone hence to swell the angelic choir of the redeemed, and his parents loss is his eternal gain.

February 3, 1841

Died in this place on Friday night the 23rd instant after a long and protracted illness, Mrs. ELIZA R. SMITH, consort of JUDGE E. T. SMITH in the 36th year of her age leaving a husband, three children and many relatives and friends to deplore her loss. The deceased was born in the village of Greenville, South Carolina and was the eldest daughter of GEORGE WASHINGTON EARLE, a name well known to many of our citizens and connected with some of the first families of that state. After her marriage, Mrs. S. removed with her husband to the period of their removal to this place in the autumn of 1837.

With a disposition the most amiable with a mind highly cultivated by a finished education and the refinements of the accomplished society with which she had been associated, it is not strange that during the three brief years which she has resided among us, she had drawn around her a circle of friends and acquaintances who will long continue to cherish the pleasing recollection of her virtues, her accomplishments, her unassuming manners and the ardent and tender attachments of her friendship.

In the month of August of the past year Mrs. SMITH became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. During the few months which have elapsed since that connection her influence and the force of her example have been directed to adorn the doctrine of the Christian Religion. In the dispensations of an overruling Providence it does seem on some occasions at last that lovely and gentle spirits are prepared by the sanctifying influences of God's grace for that heavenly home which a Saviour knows they will shortly occupy. Too good for each, that are first marked with the blood of Sprinklin and then beckoned away to the society of God and Angels.

Though "Death has sadly triumphed" over the Mortal existence of our departed friend, his icy hand has not and cannot chill the ardent and enduring attachments of a disconsolate husband, and children, and friends, until they too shall fall his victims - no, not ever then united again in the blissful Paradise of God, their bright spirits will live and love throughout eternities never ending years.

The bereaved family which she has left are not the only sufferers by this mournful event. A numerous list of acquaintances, both in town and in the country, deeply and justly feel that our society one has departed whose peace cannot be easily supplied, if indeed the loss be not irremediable.

There lurks a dread in all delight,
A shadow near each ray
That warns us then to fear their flight
When most we wish their stay.

And sadder still the pain will stay-
The bliss no more appears;
As rainbows take their light away
And leave us but the tears

The funeral of Mrs. JUDGE SMITH which took place in the village on last Sunday, we were gratified to learn, was attended by a much larger concourse of persons than has ever before attended on any similar occasion in this section of country. Being absent from home on that and several preceding days, we were denied the melancholy privilege of paying the last tribute of respect to the mortal remains of one than whom none stood higher in our own estimation.

Died in Columbus, Geo. on Saturday morning last, Mrs. ALPHIA COLQUITT, consort of the HON. WALTER J. COLQUITT.

March 17, 1841

Died in this city on Saturday night, the 13th instant, Mrs. EMELINE E. B. wife of DR. S. V. WATKINS in the 26 year of her age. It is not the intention of the writer to eulogize the dead; for sensible he is, that fought which he can say in relation to the many christian moral and domestic virtues which were so eminently and happily combined in the character of the deceased, could serve to perpetuate or endear her to the memory of her relations and friends. Her early demise has created a breach in the religious and social circles which time will all the healing opiates it can administer to the fondest recollection will be slow to repair, the vacuum in the affections of her relatives and friends can be closed by nothing earthly.

She was a consistent member of the Baptist Church an ornament to her profession and died with a brilliant hope of a glorious immortality beyond the grave. Life was open before her with all its assiduous and fascinating smiles, and the choicest blessing which earth can afford, contributed to render her existence pleasing and desirable; yet, she meekly bowed to the mandate of her Lord and Master and calmly acquiesced to the will of Heaven. Death to her was shorn of all its terrors - for she was prepared to meet its cold embrace. To her numerous friends and associates her example in life and triumph in death seem to say from the tomb "be ye also ready".

Thus pass the hopes of earth away
Like fallen leaves before the storm
The object which we love today
Tomorrow seems a transient form
E'en morning's brightest beams are oft Eclipsed in gloom and dark ere even;
And nature whispers loud, but soft that there is "nothing true but heaven".

Rest, sleeper, rest, Thy toil is O'er
Thy pilgrimage, though short, is done;
Thou'rt on a holier, brighter shore
To wear the crown so nobly won;
'Tis thine to see, to feel, to know
That which to mortals is not given;
Thou has exchanged this world below
For everlasting joys in Heaven.

Rest, sleeper, rest, these vines will bloom
in vernal beauty ever wave,
They're planted here around thy tomb,
To shed thy fragrance O'er thy grave
Perchance in autumn's chilly breath
As thou hast been they may be risen
Like thee, they'll break this seeming death
They, here to bloom, and thou, in heaven.

Died of consumption after a painful illness of several months, on the morning of the 4th inst. at the residence of COL. HENRY H. COOK in this city, Mrs. ANN B. relict of the late F. S. COOK aged 37 years. She has left six children to mourn their irreparable loss.

The deceased was a lady of highly cultivated mind, amiable in all the relations of private life and greatly esteemed by those who knew her and in her death our society has sustained a loss which it will be difficult to repair. She had been for many years a member of the Baptist Church; and it is grateful to be friends to remember that in her last moments the cheering influence of the Christian religion, shed a softening light over the otherwise rugged scenes of the death bed. July 14, 1841

Died at his residence in Russel Co., Ala. on the 20th ult. DR. BURWELL INGRAM after an illness of six days in the 31st year of his age leaving a widow and two children and a numerous circle of friends and relatives to mourn their irreparable loss. He was born in the County of Dinwiddie, Virginia and with his father removed to the county of Hancock, Ga. in the year 1818. After completing a thorough medical education, DR. INGRAM commenced the practice of his profession and his skill and fidelity will long be remembered by the citizens of Hancock. Once elected to the house of Representatives (in 1835) and twice to the Senate of the State (in '36 and '37). He discharged his public duties with credit to himself and advantage to his constituents in 1839, he settled upon his farm in this state.

In the character of our deceased friend, there was a rare union of gentleness and firmness; of nice perceptions of honor and a tender regard for the feelings of others; of modesty and of courage, of confidence in himself, and a liberal and just appreciation of his fellow men. He was kind and sincere in all the domestic and social relations of life. And as a master, was obeyed more from the attachments of his dependents than from their fears. In his professional character, the afflicted hardly knew which most to admire, the clear judgement and medical skill which he exercised or his gentleness of manner and kind sympathies which fall upon the fainting spirit of the sick man. "Like due." He died calmly and with a strong assurance of future happiness. He lived without reproach and he died without fear. Russell County, Ala. Geo. Argus

Death of a Hero - GEN. SAMUEL DALE, one of the bravest of the pioneers of the Southwest died at his residence in Lauderdale County, Mississippi on the 23 of April. A writer in the Natchez Free Trader relates the following incidents in his life:

As a scout - a pilot to the emigrants who blazed the first path through the Creek Nation from Georgia to the Tombigbee, with arms in their hands; and subsequently as a spy among the Spaniards at Pensacola and as a partisan officer during the most sanguinary epochs of the late war present at every butchery remarkable for hair breadth escapes; for caution and coolness in desperate emergencies; for exhibitions of gigantic personal strength and undaunted moral courage - his story is shrouded over with spirit stirring incidents, unsurpassed by anything in legend or history. His celebrated canoe fight, where unaided in the middle of the Alabama river then in its spring flood, he fought seven warriors with clubbed rifles and killed them all, and rowed to shore with the corpse of his late antagonist under his feet, would be thought fabulous if it had not been witnessed by twenty soldiers standing near the bank, who not having a boat, could render him no assistance.

Some years ago he was attacked by two warriors who shouted their warwhoop as he was kneeling down to drink, and made a rush at him with their tomahawks. He knifed them both and though bleeding from five wounds he retraced their trail nine miles, crept stealthily to their camp, brained three sleeping warriors, and cut thongs of a female prisoner, who lay by their side. While in this act, however, a fourth sprang upon him from behind a log taken at a disadvantage and exhausted by the loss of blood, he sank under the serpent grasp of the savage, who with a yell of triumph drew his knife, and in a few moments would have closed the contest at that instant however the woman drove a tomahawk deep into the head of the Indian, and this preserved the life of her deliverer.

Although he was among strangers when taken sick every means which skilful physicians and kind friends could suggest were used, but without success. The grim tyrant had marked him for his own, and he has gone down to a premature grave. His modest deportment and agreeable manners had secured to him a large share of friends who deeply lament his loss. Connecticut papers will please copy.

Died at his residence in this city on the 21st instant, CAPT. JEREMIAH M. FRION, of wound from a Bowie knife. The deceased was a native of Newbern, N. C., but for the last 7 years a resident of this place, during which time his conduct was such as to merit the approbation of all who knew him. He was a man of industrious, temperate habits and sedate disposition and had it pleased Divine Providence to have screened him from the unfortunate accident for a few more years, his exemplary habits would have proved him one of our most useful citizens. But since it has pleased the Almighty disposer of human events to thus permit his removal from his family and our midst, afflicting as it is, yet we will bow with humble submission to his stern decree. To his distant connection and friends it will be gratifying to hear that every attention was bestowed upon him, both by skilful physicians and his numerous friends, and that he was interred with appropriate honors by the fraternity of Masons to which he had long been attached together with the citizens. He has left an affectionate wife and four infants to deplore their loss yet may they be comforted with the reflection that time at last sets all things even. And that to the meek and humble in spirit will be meted out justice by him who alone can give and take away. The papers at Newbern will notice. Communicated.

Tombstone, Elmore Co. - Mrs. MARY B., wife of B. EASTERLING and daughter of JAS. B. and ELIZABETH C. ROBINSON. She was born Nov. 25th, 1820 and died Sept. 20, 1841.

Obituary - Died at her residence in Autauga County, on Monday, the 20th ult. Mrs. MARY B. EASTERLAND, in the 21st year of her age. Mrs. EASTERLAND was the second daughter of JAMES ROBINSON, Esq. of Autauga and had been married but little more than a year to her now bereaved husband. To behold an amiable and interesting lady thus cut off almost at the very moment when girlhood, with all its joys and sorrows, its hopes and fears have been laid aside, and she was just entering upon the untried scenes of domestic life, with its weightier cares, its more staid and sober enjoyments, is an event which all may truly mourn. To her friends, her companions and particularly to her afflicted family, it is indeed a stunning blow. How at such a moment does memory come thronging back, bringing in her train all the happy hours they have spent with her whose death they so deeply mourn? How at such a moment does recollection fondly cling to all the little incidents which chequers the path of girlhood and tinges so many of its spots with hues of golden sunlight? But alas! Death comes to all, and we mourn that we shall see her face no more. Removed from the troubles and disappointments of life at the moment of entering upon its stern realities, she is gone, we trust, to that bright spirit land of the blest," where she will dwell forever in the presence of her God.

Died at his residence in this city, on the 6th inst. of congestive fever, Mr. ELIAS ROBERTS, formerly of Bristol, Ct. in the 64th year of his age, a faithful and devoted husband - a kind and affectionate father a good and an upright citizen, his death is mourned by all as it becomes us to mourn when a good man dies. He was interred with Masonic honors by the Lodge, of which he was a worthy and efficient member. At a meeting of the Wetumpka Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, on the Occasion of the death of Brother ELIAS ROBERTS, it was resolved that the members of the Lodge wear the customary badge of mourning thirty days and that the Secretary cause the same to be published in the city papers. Departed this life on the 10th inst. Mrs. L. A. C. SMITH, wife of Mr. ALEXANDER SMITH of Coosa County in the 30th year of her age. Mrs. SMITH was the daughter of the late JOHN MCMILLAN of Cumberland County, North Carolina. She was the affectionate wife, the tender mother, the faithful friend, the cheerful consistent Christian. Throughout the whole of life her meek and placid countenance exerted a cheering influence over all around her; and retaining her native serenity until her dying hour, showed then by her faith in Christ, that there was substantial bliss even amid the pains of death. Her life afforded an example worthy of imitation, and her death afforded conclusive evidence that to the truly pious penitent heart, death has no sting and the grave can claim no victory. G.

Died on the 4th inst of pulmonary consumption at the residence of GEORGE GRAY in Coosa County, Miss MARY C. BULL of Talladega County in the 19th year of her age.

December 21, 1842

Died in Talladega County on the 6th of November, Mrs. MARY WATSON, consort of the REV. ALEXANDRIA WATSON, aged 43 years. The partialities of friendship not infrequently prompt extravagant praises of the dead. There are multitudes whose lives exhibit nothing, who, after death, are lauded as having professed uncommon excellencies; yet nevertheless there are those among the departed who were excellent, and who constitute the best subjects for eulogy. To this no one more properly belongs than the lady whose death we have announced at the commencement of this article. Seldom has it been our happiness to enjoy the acquaintance of one so interesting and lovely, for all those virtues which confer peculiar sweetness upon the female character, Mrs. WATSON was surpassingly distinguished. In the social and domestic relationships of life, that sphere which Providence has assigned to woman and where many shine with the brightest lustre, we have known but few more amiable - none more exemplary. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church for 20 years and it may truly be said she was a pious Christian, the affectionate wife, and the kind Mother, yes, and I may add she was a preacher's wife indeed. When her husband's spirits would faint within him, and would sometimes be almost persuaded to give up the arduous task of preaching, she would often say to him in words as follows: "Your company's sweet, your union's dear, your words delightful to mine ear, but my husband leave me - yea, leave me, and go and preach the Gospel to dying sinners and I will remain at home lifting up my prayers for your success while my hands are employed for the support of 12 little children, hoping that she that carries at home shall divide the spoils," Ps Ch 68 vs 12.

But the precious woman is gone and gone to glory, leaving many dear friends, a dear church, a fond and affectionate husband and 13 weeping children to lament her loss.

"And I heard a voice from Heaven saying unto me write henceforth, blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; yea, saith the spirit that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

Give Joy or grief, give ease or pain,
Take wife or friends away
But let me find them all again
In that eternal day.

Died in this city on the 2d instant, after a lingering illness, HARRIETT, consort of JAMES MCFARLIN, in the 28th year of her age.

January 4, 1843

Died on the 9th ult, in LeGrange, Geo. at the house of her brother, the REV. JOHN E. DAWSON, MARY FRANCES, consort of the late COL. HENRY H. COOK of this place, aged 35 years and 10 months.

This event had long been expected, yet the occurrence has brought sadness to many a heart, which has sympathised deeply with that afflicted and lovely woman. Although "consumptions ghastly form" had fixed its signet upon her frame for years previous to her death - though an adverse fate seems to have thwarted the fortunes of her family, and though her death came to embitter her few remaining days in a form, in which all that we know, or dream, or fear of agony----" was concentrated - by first snapping the chord of life in the bosom of her only son and 'ere the mourner had returned from his sepulchur by prostrating the manly form of her husband, yet though all, though stricken in heart and mellowed by grief she exhibited the same mild, yielding and sweet disposition, which had made her an ornament to society in her prosperity and a solace and a pride to her friends in adversity. She is now dead! The mother and the wife has followed to the grave the son and the husband. What truer or nobler epitaph can a bereaved friend indite to thee, departed spirit, than that thou was't the modest confiding wife - the tenderest mother - the sweetest friend.

May 16, 1843, May 17, 1843

Died at his residence in Dadeville, Tallapoosa County WILLIAM L. JUSTISS, clerk of the Circuit Court of said county, at half after ten o'clock on the 5th of May 1843.

His last moments were solemn and impressive - the terrors of death making no impression on his mind to disturb his peace in his expiring moments. Being in his senses he declared that he died in the fearless hope that God was reconciled to him and that he should rest in peace.

On Saturday the 6th, His Honor JUDGE ELI SHORTRIDGE presiding, the body of the deceased being brought into the court room, numerously attended by the gentler sex as well as others to mourn his loss, the presiding Judge explained the object of the meeting after which LEROY GRESHAM offered the following preamble and resolutions which were adopted (viz):

Whereas, the melancholy news of the death of WILLIAM L. JUSTISS, Clerk of the Circuit Court, has been announced to us at this Term of the Court; in evidence of the high regard and esteem we entertain for the deceased.

Resolved That the members and officers of this court wear the usual badge of mourning thirty days.

Resolved That the court do now adjourn, that we may attend the funeral services about to be performed and the interment.

Resolved That the bereaved family of the deceased be furnished with a copy of the proceedings and resolutions of this meeting in token of our respect.

Resolved That the foregoing proceedings and resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the court, and that the same be published in the East Alabamian and the Wetumpka Argus.

After the foregoing proceedings were had the REV. FREDERICK P. NORSWORTH (Meth. Min. - left Troup Co., Ga. and settled in Dallas Co. then in Tallapoosa Co. where he died before 1850. Was in Hayneville Circuit then in Lowndesboro Circuit. Was expelled from ministry. See West's p. 541-543.) performed the funeral services with that solemnity, eloquence and ability, which ever characterize the time-worn servant as a minister of God.

August 23, 1843

Mr. Editor - Indulge me with room enough in your columns to render an offering of homage to the character of an interesting and estimable gentleman-which I could not undertake while he was living without offending my own sense of propriety and violating his amiable modesty. The death of DR. HORATIO NELSON MORRIS, who departed this life on the 31st ult at Wetumpka, claims a more extended notice than a fugitive announcement in the obituary list of a newspaper. From the writer of this article his memory demands under imperative obligations, an acknowledgement of the devourest affection. For the last ten years during the evolution of which I intimately knew him, he was a source of delight to his friends-a star that sparkled with mild and unclouded lustre, from a horizon of great serenity and beauty. There was neither malice, guile, hypocrisy, envy or hatred in his bosom-frankness and generosity were sovereign traits in his character - his soul was all manliness and his heart all magnanimity. DR. MORRIS was a man of superior learning and extensive reading in the standard work of his profession, and yet his erudition was so covered over with practical good sense, that it required close observation to detect in him, what other gentlemen of the cloth with great pomp and circumstance strive to exhibit. He had been diligently trained in the medical schools and hospitals of Philadelphia and his intimate knowledge of the principles of the healing art rendered his promptness and success in their practical application to invalid cases almost miraculous. His buoyancy of spirits and an unaffected glow of native benevolence rendered him a welcome visitor to a sick bed - shed a ray of sunshine into hearts shrouded with melancholy and dissipated the gloom which collects and thickens in the apartments of distress. His shop was a dispensary from which poverty and affliction were supplied with unstinted bounty - and his heart was never shut to the whispers of charity and duty. His liberality to his friends was unhesitating, prompt, profuse, peerless and princely.

But it was in the warmth of unguarded fraternal intercourse and the hush of private friendship, that the charming attributes of DR. MORRIS' character were most successfully developed. His face was the summer morning and his voice musical - roses and violets sprung up spontaneously about his footsteps - his path was a flower garden, and a salient spring of perennial cheerfulness rendered his conversation eminently fascinating - his presence an ornament to every domestic circle and his society courted by every well disposed and benevolent mind. Tread lightly on his ashes ye men of genius - for he was your kinsman. Weed clean his grave, friends of humanity - for he was your brother.

September 13, 1843

Died at Rockford, Coosa County, on the 8th ult in the 24th year of her age, Mrs. SOPHIA CAROLINE CHERRY, wife of ROBERT M. CHERRY, Esq. and daughter of DR. ABNER CRENSHAW, all of this place.

Though called suddenly and unexpectedly, her friends are not as those "who sorrow without hope". The deceased was a subject of the religious revival here in 1839; after having weighed the subject, she thus wrote to a friend: "It has indeed been a struggle for one so devoted to gayeties, and pleasures of this life, to determine to renounce all and espouse the cause of Christ! To this determination I have finally come, but I distrust myself so much, that I know if the Divine influence were withheld I should again turn to a state of estrangement from God. O for courage! O for strength! May this determination to come forward as one supplicating a share in the benefits of a Saviour slain, be unalterable!"

She attached herself to the Presbyterian Church, soon after, and though sorely tried since by much suffering from ill health we have reason to believe she ever looked to Heaven for strength to support her, under her very severe afflictions. She seemed to have an humble sense of her own imperfections in the sight of God.

Some months before her death, she remarked to a friend, that she wished to dedicate her daughter to God in baptism and after having expressed considerable anxiety to train her up in a way she should go, she said with a pensive look, "I remember, my mother seemed to feel an increased confidence that God would take care of us after she had performed that duty."

Possessed of a well cultivated mind and agreeable manners she was, until borne down by disease, the life of the circle, in which she moved. She was an affectionate daughter, a devoted wife, a tender mother, and a warm hearted friend. Her physicians can bear testimony to her gratitude. The writer has often heard her speak of them, with an affection, which proved she was not one of the cold and heartless.

She is gone! We shall miss her in the church; we shall miss her in the social circle; but we confidently hope that clothed in a Saviour's rightness, she was welcomed into Heaven, and that her entrance there was hailed by her deceased pastor, who was the instrument in her conversion and by the many pious friends, who had preceded her.

Thou art gone to the grave - we no longer behold thee
Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side
But the wife arms of mercy are spread to enfold thee,
And we too will hope in the Saviour that died.

September 13, 1843

Died at the residence of the Editor of this paper in this city, on Saturday evening last (August 26) in her 31st year, Mrs. MARTHA JANE, consort of the REV. SEMOUR B. SAWYER, of Wetumpka Station, Alabama Conference.

Mrs. SAWYER was the daughter of THOMAS and LAVINIA BROTHERS and was born in Colleton District, S. C. June 7, 1813. She was principally raised and educated in Montgomery, Alabama where she was married to her now bereft husband November 3, 1834.

Her health, for the last 12 months had been very feeble. About the last of May, brother SAWYER left home on a travel to Indiana for the purpose of recruiting his wife's health and visiting his aged mother. He reached this place about the 1st of July when Mrs. SAWYER was unable to proceed any farther. Every effort was made for her restoration; but all was fruitless. She gradually wore away until her body sunk in death, and her spirit returned to God.

She was converted under the ministry of the REV. Mr. CUNNINGHAM of the Presbyterian Church in her 17th year; but her parents being Methodists, she united herself with that church, whose doctrines she fully believed and whose discipline she heartily approved. She was always given somewhat to despondency on the subject of religion, growing out of the fact that she was not fully satisfied with evidence of her conversion. This she often overcame, and then, under the influence of temptation, was to a certain extent robbed of her enjoyment.

When it was first announced to her that she was near to her end, she expressed some doubts; but in a few moments, having joined with her in prayer, the cloud broke away, and her spirit was filled with the love of Christ. She praised God aloud and talked in strains of eloquence of the great goodness of God. A brighter scene we never witnessed. She spoke affectionately of many of her friends, and sent a special message to some of them who had been laboring under similar temptations with herself. She said, "Tell them to doubt no more." She exhorted her husband and the writer to go on and preach Jesus, till called to our reward. She said much which we cannot here record. She died calmly, and doubtless has gone to heaven. Her funeral was preached by the writer of this brief sketch at the McKendree church, on Sunday at 3 o'clock, P.M. when her body was deposited in the city burying ground to await the resurrection of the just.

"Happy soul, thy days are ended,
All thy sorrowing days below
Go, by angel bands attended
To the arms of Jesus go"

September 20, 1843

Died on Friday the 8th inst in the 12th year of his age, JAMES A. HOBDAV, son of STARK and ELIZA HOBDAV of Coosa County. The deceased was first taken with a headache and sick stomach then with a bilious fever and cold extremities. Two physicians were called in, who gave their medical aid, and applied their usual treatment; but all medical skill, the efficacy of medicine, as well as the care and unremitting attention of relatives and friends proved unavailing to effect his recovery. After about twelve days sickness he gradually declined and finally the spirit left the tenement of clay. When the symptoms of death began to appear, he was told by an aged friend to give himself up to the care of the Saviour and to trust to Him and His merits, and that he need not dread the terrors of death. He was asked by mother if he felt willing to die; he answered in the affirmative. She asked him if he wished to tell his Father (who was from home at the time) that he was willing to die, and to meet him in Heaven; he replied again in the affirmative. He was naturally of a mild and pliable disposition; obedient to parents, affectionate to friends, inoffensive and unassuming among his acquaintance. He has left behind him an affectionate father and mother, several sisters, an infant brother with other relatives and friends to bemoan their loss; yet they would not give vent to their sorrows like those who have no hope, but would acquiesce to the Divine will and would say with one of former days who passed through the furnace of affliction, "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord."

Thy life how short, O! mortal man
Thy days are measured by a span

Died in this city on the 22nd ult, GEORGE S., son of Mrs. A. SIMPSON in the 10th year of his age.

October 25, 1843

Died on the 19th inst in Tallapoosa County, THOMAS BROTHERS, son of REV. S. B. SAWYER aged 15 months.

November 8, 1843

Died in Columbiana, Shelby County, Alabama on the 29th of September 1843, NOEL MASON, Esq. Clerk of the County Court, aged about 31 years.

At a meeting of the citizens of Columbiana and the vicinity at the Court house on the 30th of September to take into consideration the subject of this dispensation of Providence, on motion of GEORGE S. GRASTY, Esq. HON. CHARLES R. GIBBS was called to the chair and Y. A. CARR was appointed Secretary.

On motion of S. BRASHER, Esq. a committee was appointed by the chair to prepare and report suitable resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting consisting of WADE H. GRIFFIN, J. M. McCLANAHAN, S. BRASHER, L.P. BRASHER and M. J. HORTON, who retired and in a short time reported the following preamble and resolutions:

1. Resolved That we regard his death as a public loss - that we sympathize deeply and sincerely with his friends and relatives in their affliction.

2. Resolved That we regard the deceased while living as a faithful public officer, a kind and affectionate relative and an honest man.

3. Resolved That a copy of these resolutions be handed to the family of his relatives in which he lived and died and that the chairman and Secretary be required to perform that duty.

4. Resolved That the officers of the Court of which he was clerk and his friends general wear the usual badge of mourning ten days.

5. Resolved That the proceedings of meeting be published in the Democratic Watchtower, Flag of the Union and the Wetumpka papers after being signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary.

CHARLES R. GIBBS, Pres.

Y. A. CARR, Secy.

December 20, 1843

Died suddenly at his residence in Coosa County on the night of the 7th inst, COL. JOHN McNEILL, supposed to be congestion of the head and lungs.

The deceased was a native of Moore County, North Carolina. In 1819-20 he moved to Autauga County in this State, where he resided until 1838, when he removed to the place of his late residence.

One of the first settlers of this part of the State, after its admission into the Union, he was, on several occasions, sent to Cahawba, the then seat of Government by his fellow citizen in a Representative capacity to aid in setting in motion the machinery of our State Government under its new organization. Since that time, he has preferred the retirement of a private life, ambitious only in being counted an honest man, and meriting the favor of his neighbors and friends, in the kindly interchange of social duties. Uniformly hospitable, strangers as well as friends, found a ready welcome at his table. Naturally cheerful and buoyant in disposition, sad melancholy and gloomy misanthropy were never visible within his domestic circle. Such in belief and feebly given in the character of one whose death a bereaved widow mourns, and whose loss numerous relatives and friends lament.

He died suddenly and unexpectedly; but a few minutes before his spirit took its departure, he was conversing freely and with his usual cheerfulness of the certainty of his recovery by the next morning. But to him that morning never came. What food for calm and serious reflection is furnished us in the sudden death of our friend and companion and relative the destiny of us all. What an admonition that we "also be ready" for verily in the "midst of life we are in death."

January 17, 1844

Died in the town of Kingston, Autauga County on Thursday, the 4th inst, MAJ. SAMUEL SIMMONS, aged 52.

January 17, 1844

Mr. McALPIN-

Permit one who knew and appreciated the virtues of MAJOR SAMUEL S. SIMMONS, deceased, to give to his memory a tribute of friendship.

About the year of 1821 MAJOR SIMMONS removed to Autauga County, Ala. in which county he resided until his death. He moved amid the various and strong temptations which the speculations of the first settlement of this State and the political arena afforded, uncorrupted, the upright man, the honest politician, the dignified senator, the faithful officer, the modest and consistent christian. As a husband, father, neighbor and friend, he had no superiors. Untutored in academic lore, his mind naturally strong, generally took correct and strong views of important subject. This trait in his character, together with his well established candor and integrity secured him high confidence of his acquaintances and no inconsiderable portion of influence in society. He amassed a large estate and mingled for many years in the turmoil of political life, without having made a single personal enemy, known to the writer of the article.

An aged and highly respected fellow-citizen, who witnessed the death scene remarked that had he assurance that he would die like SAMUEL SIMMONS, death would have no terror for him.

On Thursday morning before day light, on finding the premonitory symptoms of rapidly approaching death, he calmly dictated his will - requested Mrs. SIMMONS to be composed - stating that he felt no pain; that he had a firm belief in his Saviour's love; that though he did not feel those rapturous glows which some have experienced, yet he "saw his way clear and he was about to die, without any pain of body or mind." Having signed his will he requested his wife to remove the pillow from his head and let him pass off - he died immediately without a single evidence of a death throee- surely

Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are
Whilst on his breast I lean my head
And breath my life out sweetly there

January 9th, 1844

Died in this city on the 5th instant after a lingering illness, Mrs. L. JORDAN, consort of ELIJAH JORDAN, in about the 30th year of her age.

The deceased was a native of Virginia, of respectable parentage and a few years since a resident of Henry County, Georgia, where she married Mr. JORDAN. She left four helpless children entirely dependent on the bounty of strangers, her husband having basely abandoned her and family after squandering what little property she had. He is now supposed to be in Macon County in this state. For sometime before the death of Mrs. J. from the lone and wretched condition in which she was left, she suffered many privations until her neighbors discovered her situation and relieved her wants.

Should this meet the eye of any relatives or friends in Georgia, they would be doing an act of kindness to make enquiry and take these helpless and abandoned children under their charge. Any information can be obtained by addressing the Editor of this paper or E. WILLIAMSON at this city, who has with true christian charity given the children a home and ministered to their wants like those of his own family. Georgia papers please copy.

February 28, 1844

Died at his plantation in Montgomery County on the 9th inst. Mr. GEORGE M. RIEVES of the house of Rives, Battle & Co.

Died in Mobile on the 14th inst, of small pox, Mrs. MARCIA S. D., wife of DARIUS CLOCK, Esq. in the 22nd year of her age. The death of this estimable lady deserves more than a passing notice. She was a native of Brunswick in the State of Maine; and about the 1st of December last, in that distant section of our country - in the full enjoyment of health - in the bloom of early life - with fond hopes clustering around her heart and the blow of promise brightly spanning the almost cloudless future - she stood at the altar with the man of her choice, a loving, hoping, trusting bride - scarcely two months had passed away ere she was laid in the cold and silent grave. Death came upon her suddenly and in the most unwelcome form, not only far away from the care and sympathy of her friends, but under circumstances which deprived her even of the ordinary attention of sympathising strangers - and more than this, which denied to her those consolations, so dear to a christian in the dying hour - the personal attentions and communion of her christian friends.

Death is at all times an unwelcome visitant to the young; it must have been so to our departed sister. How painful to be called away just as another and holier tie had been cemented around her heart. But notwithstanding all, her death was a triumphant one. She had put her trust in Him who could never leave or forsake her. She had made peace with God, and was calmly resigned to his holy will - Having made religion her choice when the blessings and favors of heaven were around her, she was permitted to enjoy its consolation in this her trying hour. Her afflictions she knew would be brief and she felt assured they were out. A prelude to the eternal fruitions of another and a better world. Feeling and hoping thus, she could patiently endure all that might be ordered and without a murmur bear her father's chastening rod.

One of her first acts on coming among us was to unite herself with the Second Presbyterian Church in this city and to assume a part in the duties and responsibilities of the Sabbath School and all can bear testimony to the consistency of her christian walk, and the zealous discharge of the christian duties during her brief sojourn among us. Up to the time when her Master called her, she was prompt - we believe faithful in his service; and we have no doubt she has heard the gracious commendation, "well done, thou good and faithful servant." But once with us, was she permitted to come to the table of her Lord, and partake of the memorials of a Saviour's dying love, ere she was called to sit down with that Saviour in the kingdom of his Father.

As a Sabbath School Teacher, none was earlier in their places, or seemed to labor with more earnestness than our departed sister, to point the children of her class to that Heaven to which she had soon led the way. Her labors on earth are ended. In life and in death she bore a pleasing testimony to the sanctifying and sustaining power of the grace of God; and through a large circle of near and dear friends will lament her early death yet are permitted to enjoy the consoling hope that their loss is her unspeakable and eternal gain - that from the toils and trials and sorrows of earth, she has gone to rest forever in the bosom of her God.

History of Sumter County - Chapter VI.
Rev. WILLIAM WOODWARD born November 15, 1792 in York District, South Carolina. Circumstances of his father were humble. Elder children were girls, so the subject of this memorial was reared to labor on the farm. Married when 21 and moved to Chester District in 1820. Elected to representative branch of the Legislature but after serving 3 years removed to the frontier of Georgia. In 1828 joined the Baptist Church. Settled in Greene County in 1834 and in 1838 to Sumter County in that portion of it which became Choctaw. Ordained a minister. In 1842 nominated by the Democratic party for a seat in the legislature... (Long, did not copy more.) (Judge says this was real old history that was re-published.)

Death of CHANCELLOR JAMES B. CLARK. A primitive letter from Blount Springs brings information that HON. JAMES B. CLARK died at that place on Sunday morning of cholera. He filled a prominent place in the Judiciary of the State for many years and the records of the Chancery and Supreme Courts bear testimony of his worth and ability. He was a native of Pa. Bedford County 1796 and was 77 years old at the time he died. Came to Alabama in 1822, having been licensed to practice law a short time previously and settled in Bibb Co. He subsequently settled in Cahaba after having filled one term in the Legislature from Bibb. Engaged in practice of law in Cahaba 8 years and met with great success. From Cahaba he moved to Eutaw, of which place he continued to his death a citizen. In 1863, CHANCELLOR CLARK resigned his office and became a private citizen and after the close of the war, engaged in the practice of law with his son,

MAJ. T. C. CLARK. CHANCELLOR CLARK was perhaps as widely known as any man in Alabama and was universally respected for his honesty and integrity. On the Bench, he was a stern Judge, yielding nothing and compelling the most implicit obedience. As a private gentleman, he was affable and sociable and it was hard to realize that CHANCELLOR CLARK on and off the Bench was the same man. He was a man of untiring application and observed the greatest system in his business and professional engagements. While living, he was honored and respected by the people of Ala. (Selma Times)

Another Revolutionary soldier gone!

Departed this life in Pickens County, Ala. on 23d of November last, MR. JAMES McCORRY, a native of Ireland. He was born on 15th of May, 1758 at Larga on the River Bann in the County of Antrim, Ireland. He sailed from Belfast in the year 1775 and landed at Baltimore 1st July same year. In 1776, he settled in Guilford County, North Carolina and the same year enlisted in continental service as it was then called. He was at the battle of Bradywine under GEN. WASHINGTON, at battle of Germantown under GEN. WASHINGTON and wintered at Valley Forge in Pa. He fought under GEN. GREENE at Guilford; was at battle of Eutaw Springs and at battle of Stono. He was with GEN. GATES at his defeat and with Morgan at battle of the Cowpens. For courage, services and good conduct, he was promoted to the rank of Ensign in GEN. WASHINGTON's Corps of Force (or Life Guards) and while belonging to the Corps was taken prisoner and marched to south of Cape Fear River and kept confined on board a prison ship for six months. At the close of the Revolution, he retired to labors of private life and early became one of citizens of the Territory, now the state of Alabama. For last 25 years of his life, he was a worthy member of the Church and in the cheerfulness and contentment of his mind seemed to anticipate that future happiness....

Obituary:

Died on the 23d, ult, at the residence in Montpelier, Baldwin County, Alabama, COLONEL LEE SLAUGHTER in the 48th year of his age. In early life, he devoted himself to attainment of military acquirements. Having received the appointment of Lieutenant in the regular army he emigrated to the South and was promoted to Adjutant under command of COLONEL KING of the 4th Regiment of United States Infantry; in all offices, he discharged his arduous duties with honor and dignity to himself and patriotic cause in which he was engaged "never shrinking as a soldier from any duty assigned him." After his retirement from the army, he acted in various civil and public capacities--sheriff of County and a representative in the legislature of his adopted state. And in all his social and business relations, he sustained the character of an honest, liberal and high minded gentleman. Amiable and candid as a friend- honest, upright and manly as a citizen- tender and devoted as a husband- kind and affectionate as a father- feeling and humane as a master- his death created a chasm in those relations which years cannot fill. Carried forward by his own exertions without the aid of any splendid patrimony, without influence and interest of powerful family connections, he acquired an ample and independent estate and established a character, which would do honor to any man in any country.

He left an affectionate wife, five children and a large circle of friends and acquaintances....E D M

Obituary:

Died on the 31st of December in his 87th year, ELIJAH MCGUIRE in Tuscaloosa County. He was born in Cumberland County, Virginia on the 19th of January, 1857; from thence moved to South Carolina. At an early age, he enlisted as a soldier in a regiment commanded by COL. WILLIAM THOMPSON and was one of the company of CAPTAIN JOHN BUCHANNAN. The post of danger at the time was the city of Charleston, and hastening with his companies to defence of that city, he was taken prisoner of war at the capitulation. Immediately on his exchange, he attached himself to a troop of light horse, commanded by GENERAL SUMTER and continued in active service until the war was concluded. He was distinguished for ardent patriotism and eminent courage and was connected with many daring and perilous enterprises in defense of his country. After the war, he married MISS EVERETT WILLIAMS, with whom he lived a happy life for upwards of 60 years and who, now, a widow in her 83rd year of age, mourns his loss. They were both Baptists for nearly half a century....

Death of MAJ. HICKMAN:
MAJ. EDWIN HICKMAN died in this city on the 19th at the advanced age of 85. Born in Nashville, Tenn. in 1785 just after the close of the Revolution. We believe he spent the earlier part of his life in the vicinity of his birthplace, a while in Huntsville, Ala. but our first knowledge of him was at Memphis, Tenn. over which city he presided as Chief Magistrate for many years, giving universal satisfaction. He came to San Antonio in the year 1853, where he resided over after with respect and love of all who ever knew him. He was not, we believe a professor of religion, but he was a man of true noble principles and sentiments and the soul of honor, a fine, perfect gentleman of the old school. (From San Antonio, Tex. paper)

GEORGE A. ELGIN died at his father's residence in this city on Wed. night last after a painful illness of several weeks in 25th yr. History of Madison Co.

THOMAS FREEMAN and HUNTER PEALE were two surveyors.

WILLIAM ACKLEN was born in Tazewell, Claiburn Co. Tenn. Dec. 1802. His father came from Va. and married a daughter of JOHN HUNT. After a residence of some years in Tenn. he removed with his family to Huntsville in 1808. WILLIAM, the son, received his education at Greenville College, Tenn. and read law in office of EBENEZER TITUS in Huntsville in 1822.... He died May, 1872.

JOSEPH ACKLIN:

A brother of WILLIAM was also a man of energy and ability. Became Federal district attorney for Ala.

JOHN ACKLIN:

Another brother was a useful citizen of Madison and sheriff of the county. The most celebrated of HUNT's grandsons was

GEN. JOHN HUNT MORGAN:

Calvary Commander who was Maj. General in late war; was a native of Madison Co. 1825 but removed to Ky. while a child. He was killed in a disgraceful manner at Greenville, Tenn. Sept. 24, 1864 near former home of his grandfather. (Mistake corrected in later issue--His mother was a HUNT but not daughter of JOHN HUNT)

(Letter from MRS. JACK T. ROARK, 700 Forrest Park La, Nov. 11, 1959. "My husband is a desc. of LEVI COLBERT, the son of LOGAN COLBERT & an Indian woman whose name is unknown to us. We will try to find out more about LOGAN & his wife later but right now we are trying to find out names of LEVI COLBERT's children. His 1st wife was MINTEHOYAS of the Chickasaw nation & his 2nd wife was DOLLY. We have 4 lists of these clin & none of them agree! LEVI d. at his dau's place at Buzzard's Roost, Ala. in 1834. She was m. to a KILPATRICK CARTER. We understand that Ala. has a Colbert Co. supposedly named for this COLBERT family. Is this fact or fiction?

A distant coz sent the fol list of clin:

LEVI's clin by MINTEHOYA:

MARIAH (from whom my husband descended), ROBERT, ALEX, CHAS., ADAM, DAUGHTERITY (WINCHESTER), COMMODORE, ABIJAH, PHILISIS, LEMUEL, LEWIS, VICY, SUSAN, CHARITY, ACY, MARTIN

My husband's ggm gave this list:

LEVI's clin: MARTIN, ADAM, BEN, MORGAN, ABIJAH, LEWIS, ALEX, LEE, MACH, CHAS., COMMODORE, ELSIE, CHARITY, PHYLLIS (PHALISHTA), MARIAH.

A great-aunt lists them this way:

MARTIN, LEMUEL, CHARLIE, BENJ. MAXWELL, PHYLLIS (PHILISIA), CHARITY, ACY or ELSIE, ELZISA, MARIAH

By DOLLY:

ADAIR, ALEX, MORGAN, DOUGHTERY (WINCHESTER), ABIJAH, COMMODORE. and the last list was sent by a coz. Vol. 8 MISS HIST see publication LEVI's clin: MARTIN, CHAS, ALEX, ADAM, LEMUEL, DAUGHTRY, EBIJAH, COMMODORE, LEWIS, CHARITY, MARIAH, PHALISITA, ASA."

(Letter from MRS. HELEN M. JACKSON, Liberty, Mo--1956 "I am a desc. of LEVI COLBERT & I have been informed that there are descendants of GEORGE COLBERT living in Tuscaloosa. Where was COLBERT's Ferry & why was it named? LEVI COLBERT was the grandson of JEAN BAPTISTE COLBERT of France.")

March 31, 1877

History continued--On 23 July 1805, JAMES ROBERTSON of Tenn. and SILAS DINSMORE of N. H. in behalf of U.S. purchased from GEORGE and LEVI COLBERT a small triangular district south of Tenn. line containing 515 square miles.

April 6, 1877

History continued--MRS. COYLE, an old widow lady owned the first mule ever brought to the county. Green Bottom Inn (MR. ALFRED ELLIOTT's place) was 4 miles north of Huntsville.

April 21, 1877

History continued--ANDREW BEAN was a companion of HUNT's. Also of Irish birth. On 1 Sept. 1802, JOHN HUNT and ANDREW BEAN left their cabin in West Tenn. JOHN HUNT was born in Ireland about 1790. One CHRISTOPHER BLACK, an Irishman who assisted HUNT is removing his family from East Tenn.

Estate of JANE POWER, deceased. R. A. PETTEY, administrator.

June 16, 1877

History continued--The first settlement made where New Market now stands was that of two brothers, GEORGE and JACOB BROILES. They came to this country in 1806 and selected that spot for their home. First employed themselves in deadening timber and clearing land and in course of year or two had a pretty little farm. Settlers came in rapidly and other industries than farming were demanded. GEORGE BROILES built the first blacksmith shop in that part of what is now Madison Co. In 1808 the first tan yard in the county or state was begun by one TRUMP in vicinity of BROILES' farm. From 1808 to 1818 the first inn or tavern in this section was kept by one ROWAN. One GEORGE SMITH bought land extending from Main St. in New Market to old Indian boundary line and built first store house in village; next came MOSES POARE, an old soldier of the Revolution and built a cabin where DR. TALIAFERRO now lives. FRED JONES made a settlement at the Berry (Fuqua) Spring and did a good service for the county by planting out an orchard of fruit trees, first ever planted in Madison Co. DUDLEY DAY established the first saddler's shop. One JAMES BROWNING opened the second store in New Market but was unsuccessful in business and soon closed up. (We are indebted to JOSEPH RICE, Esq. and W. B. JONES, Esq. for valuable assistance in writing this history)

June 23, 1877

History continued--About 1818 at instance of GEORGE SMITH, a man by name of BURNS was employed to survey land now forming the site of New Market. About 1819 New Market received a useful citizen in JOHN MILLER, ancestor of the MILLER Family now owning property around New Market. MILLER bought the inn and property of ROWAN and built the first mill ever erected in the neighborhood. He also built the first frame house in New Market and perhaps the first in the county. GEORGE SMITH built the house in which DR. GREENLEE now lives. About 1825, W. D. HAYTER and JOHN W. ESTELL opened the 3rd store house. In 1833, STAPLES and PATRICK came to New Market with a stock of goods. HOLDEN and ECHOLS built the CRINER store and sold goods there in 1834. The same year, WILLIAM HILL built a residence near the MILLER home. A man by name of DRAKE first lived where A. HAMBRICK now resides. About this time DR. HUMPHREYS came to New Market and opened an office. DR. NORRIS and DR. CABANISS arrived soon after, 1st physicians in New Market. The first machine shop belonged to MESSRS. J. and D. SIBLEY. The first saloon was used by one AB. BROWN. The first taylor's shop was opened by JOSEPH BROWN.

June 30, 1877

MISS CARRIE M. LACY died in Madison Co. Ala. 8 May 1877. Born in Franklin Parish, La. Nov. 13, 1860. Methodist Episcopal Church.

Died in Huntsville on 20 June, FANNIE CORA FOSTER, daughter of MR. J. D. FOSTER of this city aged 6 years.

We learn of the death of MR. J. W. TROTMAN of typhoid in Dallas, Tex. on Thurs. morning last. WILL was a former resident of Huntsville, Ala.

History continued--The first mill ever erected on Flynt River was built by JOHN BYRD in 1808. Soon after, LEVI HINDS, father of MR. LEVI HINDS and MRS. HENRY RIGNEY, erected an excellent water power mill. In 1835, DR. WILLIAM H. GLASCOCK was candidate for Congress. GEN. BENJAMIN F. RICKETTS was killed in a difficulty with ROBERT CLOPTON. In 1810, a man by name of BOSHART built a grain mill where Bell Factory now stands.

It is a matter of much dispute whether the CRINERS or HUNT first made a permanent settlement in Madison Co. It is certain that HUNT's visit in 1802 and the discovery of the "Huntsville Big Spring" antedated the coming of the CRINERS. It is equally true that ISAAC CRINER, JOSEPH CRINER and STEPHEN McBROOM came to this county and cleared land and began planting in 1804 or 1805. It was in the summer of 1804 as we have seen that JOHN HUNT commenced permanent improvements at his settlement near the "Big Spring." The CRINERS and McBROOM brought their families to this county in the latter part of the year 1805 or the early part of 1806. ISAAC CRINER settled on what is now the northern part of GEORGE F. STRONG's land.

April 13, 1824

I, WILLIAM COZBY of Madison County and State of Alabama do hereby certify that I was appt Agent for my father, R. COZBY, a Pensioner of the U.S., in the year 1822 to receive pension from the agent in Huntsville and applied to said agent in 10 Ca the 1st of June, the pension having been due from the 10th of March preceding, in the year 1822, amounts to \$48; when the agent informed me that he has no funds to pay the pension and advised me to a(--faded) at Huntsville again in about 2 weeks; when I did, and was again put off with the same excuse, and so from time to time 3 or 4 times until I think sometime in July, I again applied from his informing me by mail that I could draw my father's pension upon application & rec'd from said agent \$48 in depreciated bank bills on Tenn and Huntsville banks, which I received for my because I believed I could get no better money having understood the agent would pay in --(faded). I further certify that I afterwards drew said pension for my father. $\frac{1}{2}$ yearly til Sept. or Oct. 18 when I drew the last, my father now being dead all of which I received in Tenn & Huntsville bank note a greatly depreciated value because I could get no better.

At the receipt of all the installments the agent gave his check on the Huntsville bank and that 1 of times the cashier of the bank asked the agent when the agent replied, "in Huntsville or Tenn. notes," given under my hand this 31st of January 1824.

WILLIAM COZBY

Certified by GEORGE T. JONES, J.P.

Died in this place on 7th inst. MR. JOHN MILLER of the Firm of CAIN & MILLER.

I, WILLIAM PARKER, do hereby certify that I was formerly a private in CAPT. MUHLENBURG's Co. of the 4th Regt., U.S. Inf. and agreeably to my certificate bearing date 6 Sept. 1820 am entitled to receive $8 per month to commence on 11th March 1819. I do also further certify that I applied to the pension agent in Huntsville, COL. POPE (about the month of Oct. 1821) for the amount of my pension then due when he, the said agent paid me the sum of $237.00 or thereabouts (this being the 1st time I had applied for my pension) in depreciated, Tenn. bank bills. I demanded U.S. funds of the said agent but he positively refused paying such. I then required of him Huntsville bank notes, which were considered about 10% better than Tenn but he even refused to pay me in that paper and concluded by saying that if I would not take the Tenn notes I might go unpaid as he had drawn that description of money to pay the pensioners which I very reluctantly received as I lived in Mobile where it was of little or no value. I do also further certify that his money was paid me in the bank of Huntsville and in the presence of the cashier, who in my presence requested COL. POPE.

Given under my hand 25 February 1824

Obituary:

Departed this life on the 6th inst. in her 7-th yr. MRS. ANN HARRIS, consort of MR. FRANCIS E. HARRIS of Madison County, Alabama. A concurrence of felicitous circumstances by the will of the divine Providence were conferred on this excellent woman, which are rarely the lot of mortals here on earth. She lived in all comfort and harmony of conjugal bliss with a worthy, intelligent and kind husband for over a half a century. She had seen long before her death, her children settled in the world with flattering prospects, esteemed and respected. She was the center of a numerous and very respectable circle of friends, whom she loved and for whom she entertained the most cordial regard and who most sincerely revered her. She possessed the means and it was her glory, her delight to receive, to entertain and to cherish the weary, wandering Pilgrims of her much beloved Jesus; her heart was open, her hands liberal to give the disciples more than a "cup of cold water." She bestowed on them the best she had. But the last, the greatest blessing in the cup of human felicity RELIGION she prized above all the rest; she delighted more in the smiles, in the approbation of her God than in every earthly enjoyment--her piety was rational, deep, solid, and genuine. She was an ornament to religion and to the Methodist Church for about 40 years, during which time she manifested a steadiness and constancy, which clearly declared that her religion was not of the hand but of the heart. The writer of this narrative has been acquainted with her for 34 years. He visited her in her last illness and he bears witness to her fortitude, patience, resignation and victory, the triumph of Faith, the Grace of Jesus, cheering the dying Saint. She died as she lived, a Christian. Note: She was nee MACON, dau. of HENRY & REBECCA (MAYO) MACON. ANN's husband FRANCIS EPPES HARRIS left a will in Madison Co. Ala. in 1828. FRANCIS & ANN are great-great grandparents of PAULINE JONES GANDRUD.

Departed this life on Monday the 4th instant at his residence four miles south of Bolivar, Jackson County, Ala. COL. GEORGE CAPERTON, for advanced in his 60th year, after an illness of ten days...left numerous family in easy circumstances. Was commander of a company in the last Creek and Seminole War in which at many places, Tallahatchee, Talladega and others, but particularly the latter, he distinguished himself as an officer and a good soldier. It was there at the commencement of the battle (the most doubtful crisis of a soldier's feelings) that is exhibited that deliberation and firmness which characterizes the American Soldier. Our army was moving slowly toward the enemy in battle array; COL. CARROLL INSPECTOR GENERAL riding in front and being more elevated than some part of his men first discerned the Indians crouched down in the shrubbery. He halted. Gave the precautionary commands, then fire. COL. CAPERTON, then CAPT. CAPERTON, not being sufficiently high to see the enemy exclaimed to his company, "Stop boys--don't fire until you see the object that you shoot at." Their fire was reserved--but twas for a short time for the firing of the first company caused the Indians to rise from their ambushade with hideous yells and gestures as they rushed toward our encampment, when CAPT. CAPERTON repeated the COLONEL's orders to his company, the Indians were shocked and checked in their impetuous course and filed off in a different direction. (See "History of the Middle New River Settlements & Contiguous Territories, page 388.)

June 29, 1839

Another Revolutionary patriot gone. Died at his residence near Pickensville, Ala. on the 31st ultimo OBADIAH HOOPER SR in the 84th year of his age. MR. HOOPER was born in Lunenburg County, Virginia on the 25th day of December, 1755 where he resided until the outbreak of that glorious struggle which gave us our independence. He early engaged in that struggle and was a regular soldier until the close of the war. He heard the Declaration of Independence when first read by the immortal JEFFERSON. He fought at the Battle of Bunker Hill. He was also at Trenton and was one of those who gave a new impulse to the cause of freedom by gaining that important battle. He was one of those who crossed the Delaware under the godlike eye of the immortal WASHINGTON to attack the British and Hessians at Princeton. Here, he has often been heard to say, the blood marked the ground as it trickled from his shoeless feet. He was at the storming of Stony Point; he was at GATES' defeat and had charge of the ammunition wagons on that occasion, but blew them up in order to prevent them from falling into the hands of the British. He was at the memorable Siege and Battle of Yorktown and had the honor of seeing CORNWALLIS surrender his sword. He was likewise at the Battle of Brandywine and was wounded twice in that engagement, once from a musket ball and once from the stab of a bayonet, and there is no doubt but that the wound received on that occasion hastened somewhat his death even at this remote period. .has left an affectionate wife and a large number of children and grandchildren (South Alabamian).

E. L. KIMBROUGH of Erie, Greene Co. advertises for runaway slave.

Letter from DAVID GOODNER (note: several letters preceded this, both from GOODNER and others, it seems someone charged that GOODNER had had two orphan boys in his care and had punished them cruelly by pretending to hand them. MR. GOODNER presented affidavits to show the boys were most unruly and no other means availed; that the boys were not injured, and the correction did help them. He offered one affidavit from one of the boys, omitting signature but attested by JOSEPH RICE that he knew the man and that it was his signature. In no place did I find the names of the boys). "The boys were committed to my care on the 1st Saturday in March, 1817 at a company muster by THOMAS MILLER Esq. of this county then Overseer of the Poor in the district that included his residence. The oldest, supposed to be nine years old, I took as an apprentice and was the lowest bidder to maintain the youngest, only about seven years old, twelve months at the expense of the county."

Testimony of SAMUEL DURRELL SANSOM: On the 4th of last May I came to MR. GOODNER's where I have ever since resided.... MR. GOODNER had with him and has yet a couple of boys.... Sworn to before ABR. KING, J.P. 10 Sept. 1817.

Testimony of SAMUEL CRAGG: has lived with MR. GOODNER more than two years...sworn to 17 July 1817 before BENJAMIN FRANKS, J.P.

Testimony of WILLIAM WADE, has lived with MR. GOODNER since 17th last February...sworn to before BENJAMIN FRANKS, J.P. 17 July 1817.

Testimony of WILLIAM D. EVANS; has lived with MR. GOODNER since last of last March. Sworn to before BENJAMIN FRANKS J.P. 17 July 1817.

MR. MILLER recollects the grandfather of the boys requested him not to bind the boys to me...12 months later I was asked to take the younger as an apprentice.

Also testimony of REUBEN SHOTWELL and STEPHEN GRIFFITH they being only ones remaining who were heads of families in the neighborhood at that time.

Died in the 26th year of her age, at this place on Wednesday the 15th instant after a painful illness of 16 days MRS. ELIZABETH G. wife of SAMUEL MARTIN, merchant. The deceased was a native of Botetourt County Virginia, and daughter of FREDERICK W. and DOROTHY ANN JAMES late of that place, whence she early emigrated to Madison County, Ala. and thence in 1836 to this place where she has since resided (Mason Mississippi Intelligencer). Note: FREDERICK W. JAMES died in Madison County in 1824 leaving eight children. ROBERTSON'S POCAHONTAS and Her Descendants

p. 36 gives ANN DANDRIDGE m. FREDERICK JAMES- 1 son- and on page 460 of ANN DANDRIDGE's children who married, P. JAMES...m...UTZ, FINCASTLE. One of FREDERICK W. JAMES' daughters married an UTZ in Virginia as can be seen by Cumberland County Marriage Bonds published 1931 in the D A R Magazine, giving consent of JOHN R. B. ELDRIDGE, her guardian (who was of this county). While it is possible FREDERICK JAMES was married more than once, it is also possible that this daughter is of the DANDRIDGE line. There were many of the POCAHONTAS blood among Madison County's early settlers.

Died, this morning at her residence in the vicinity of this place, MRS. SARAH POSEY in the 43rd year of her age. But a few days ago we were called upon to consign to earth the last remains of her beloved husband, CAPT. JESSE H. POSEY and on the next morning the son followed his father to a premature grave. Jackson, Mississippi, September 1. Died at his residence in Jefferson County on Sunday the 23rd of August MAJOR GENERAL THOMAS HINDS, native of the State of Mississippi, aged about 58 years. During the late war GENERAL HINDS commanded a regiment of Mississippi Cavalry and served under GENERAL JACKSON in the Creek War. In the fall of 1814 he returned home and in December of that year received orders to repair by forced marches to New Orleans. He assembled his soldiers consisting of four companies, one from each of the counties of Jefferson, Amite, Adams and Wilkinson at Woodville and marched 75 miles per day thence to New Orleans and arrived just in time to participate in the bold attack on the British encampment on the night of the 23rd of December. During the period intervening between that engagement and the glorious and decisive victory of the 8th of January he frequently led his troops up to the British lines and charged them with distinguished success and in the language of the order of the day "excited the astonishment of one army and the admiration of the other" GENERAL HINDS represented this state in the U.S. Congress three sessions...wife died many years since and he leaves an only child, a son.

From Columbia Democrat; Slander of the Dead; (it was charged the grandfather of JAMES K. POLK was a Tory) His grandfather was EZEKIEL POLK and the following is the certificate of CAPT. JAMES JACK who was bearer of the message of the Mecklenberg meeting to Congress; EZEKIEL POLK and THOMAS POLK were brothers, the one the grandfather the other the great uncle of JAMES K. POLK. The ALEXANDERS were his maternal ancestors. CAPT. JACK's certificate: "Having seen in the newspapers some pieces respecting the Declaration of Independence by the people of Mecklenberg County in the State of North Carolina in May 1775 and being solicited to state what I know of that transaction I would observe that for some time previous to and at the time those resolutions were agreed upon I resided in the town of Charlotte, Mecklenberg County, was privy to a number of meetings of some of the most influential and leading characters of the country on the subject before the final adoption of the resolutions, and at the time they were adopted; among those who appeared to take the lead may be mentioned HEZEKIAH ALEXANDER who generally acted as chairman, JOHN McNITT ALEXANDER as secretary, ABRAHAM ALEXANDER, ADAM ALEXANDER, MAJOR JOHN DAVIDSON, Major, afterwards general, WM. DAVIDSON, COL. THOMAS POLK, EZEKIEL POLK, DR. EPHRAIM BREVARD, DUNCAN OCHLETREE, WM. WILSON, ROBERT IRVIN. Nearly all the names here given were the blood relatives of JAMES K. POLK. The next portion that we have of EZEKIEL POLK's history is that he was a captain in the S C Line and our information is that he was engaged in several actions with the British. He was not so distinguished in the war as his brother or his nephew--all cannot be equally distinguished. The grandfather of JAMES K. POLK on the maternal side was CAPT. JAMES KNOX who served his country in the Revolutionary War, was a brave soldier and a good officer. Our neighbor CAPT. DAVID DOBBINS, a good revolutionary Whig and Democrat served with him.

In said will, he gave all of his estate to his widow during her natural life and on her marriage she to have such part as the law entitled her to. Said will was afterwards revoked by said WILLIAM MINOR. Bill states that he wrote on the same sheet of paper in the presence of said SARAH and several of his children these words: "This is not my will" and signed his name thereto; that since that time the half sheet containing the words of cancellation has been torn off and that it was done by said WILLIAM R. W. MINOR for fraudulent purposes of destroying the evidence of said cancellation.

Died near McKinley in Marengo Co. Ala. Tue. 13 July, COL. HENRY KING aged 64 years. The deceased was a native of North Carolina but early removed to Madison Co. Ala. Upon the breaking out of the War of 1812 he enlisted as a private in the ranks of GEN. JACKSON's army and was with the old hero at the celebrated battle of New Orleans. He returned to his home not long, however, to enjoy retirement for his fellow citizens soon elected him, as one of the members of the Electoral ticket for the State at large during JACKSON's first Presidential campaign. With a well balanced mind and a vigorous intellect, he inflicted stalwart blows upon the opposition, and did much to secure for old Hickory a glorious victory. He was nine consecutive sessions a member of the State Legislature from Madison Co. and was ranked as one of its most efficient members. Here his political career ended, the filthy pool of politics had and for him no charms and the remainder of his life was devoted to agricultural pursuits. He remained unwaveringly attached to the cause of Democracy and always exercised the privilege of the elective franchise. He was a warm friend, with a heart ever open and ready to afford assistance to the needy. (Poem)

In memory of JOSEPH RICE, deceased.

JOSEPH RICE, Esq. died at the residence of his brother-in-law W. R. JONES near New Market, Ala. of acute bronchitis on Monday, February 12, 1883 at 12:15 p.m. in his 86th year. The deceased was born Nov. 5, 1797 in Cooke (Cocke?) County, Tennessee, whither his parents removed to Buncombe, N.C., and in 1806 to the vicinity of what is now New Market in Madison County, which was organized as a County by the Mississippi Territorial Legislature in 1805. His father, SPENCER RICE, dying in 1808, his mother went back to North Carolina taking JOSEPH and his younger brothers LEVI and GEORGE with her. In a few months she died, leaving these little boys to the care of her sister, MRS. SARAH McCATHY. The subject of this sketch and his brother LEVI, young as they were, wishing to live in Alabama, set out on foot and in less than two weeks were again at the present New Market where JOSEPH RICE has since resided, except for six years when he lived in Dallas County, Ala.

In 1813, when about 16 years old he served under GENERAL JACKSON as a volunteer in the Creek War and (a friend informs us) was one of a body of volunteers sent from Fayetteville, Tenn. by GENERAL JACKSON to defend Huntsville from a threatened Indian raid, and they came at a double quick, reaching Huntsville, 30 miles distant, in five hours.

On the 18th of February, 1818 he was married to JOHANNA BAYLESS, daughter of HEZEKIAH BAYLESS, Esq. who in 1805 settled on the place where JOHN A. FANNING now lives. This union was blessed with nine children, four sons and five daughters, of whom only one son, DR. FRANCISCO RICE, and three daughters survive him.

In the fall of 1841 he made a profession of faith in Christ but did not attach himself to any Church for several years, when he united with the Baptist Church at New Market, and ever after lived a consistent Christian.

He was of a cheeful, lively disposition, very humorous, having a pleasant smile and word for every one, polite and courteous to the most lowly as to the most honored, liberal in the distribution of his means in the aid of churches and schools, and never turning the poor and needy empty away. In his pursuits as a private citizen and in his official capacity as a Justice of the Peace a love of right and justice was his ruling trait. Few men, if any were more respected than he for these eminent Christian virtues. He died in peace with God and man with a blessed hope of a resurrection of the just... May he rest in peace and rise in Glory.

(NOTE: MR. CARTER RICE, a grandson of JOSEPH RICE, now dead, told us a number of years ago that JOSEPH's father, SPENCER RICE, a Revolutionary Soldier, died here before the county records began. This is the first proof we have found of SPENCER RICE's residence, since he died before land in this county was placed on sale by the Land Office. He had a number of sons, OTHNIEL being another.)

March 17, 1883

In Memoriam. ISHAM H. HOBBS (son of JOHN; 36 in Virginia) was born in Virginia October 22, 1814 and died in Huntsville February 10, 1890. MR. HOBBS moved to Alabama at an early age and spent the greater part of his life in or near Huntsville. He was married twice, first to MISS SUSAN S. SANDIDGE (25 in Georgia; daughter of GARRETT), August 24, 1841. His second wife, who survives him was MISS ELLEN PARKER, to whom he was married April 14, 1872. Both marriages took place in Madison County. He leaves a widow and eight children. He was for many years a member of the Methodist Church. "A Friend."

Madison County Journalism. In 1806 CAPT. JOHN HUNT erected the first log cabin and six years later the first newspaper was published, called the Madison Gazette and a MR. PARHAM who came here from Nashville, Tennessee was the Editor and Publisher. In 1816 MR. THOMAS B. GRANTLAND took over the Gazette and called it the Huntsville Republican. The Republican was merged in the Southern Advocate and the Advocate absorbed by the Mercury.

In 1823 the Democrat was established by PHILIP WOODSON and the first issue appeared October 8th. MR. WOODSON was succeeded by J. WITHERS CLAY in 1849.

The Huntsville Independent was established December 1, 1855 by JOHN J. DEW and JOHN J. YOUNG. MR. DEW went to Memphis and MR. YOUNG was forced to the wall, and it was then taken in charge by W. P. NEWMAN and FRANK COLEMAN. When the Advocate was absorbed by the Mercury MAJOR SLOSS attempted to start a new Advocate but was unsuccessful and sold the plant to CHARLES P. LANE who started a Republican weekly called the New South but it went down unhonored and unsung. Two decades ago MESSRS. CARUTHERS and WRENCH started the North Alabama Reporter but it was not a success.

She had been in Tuscaloosa about a month. (WM. R. JONES married January 21, 1852 GILLIANN RICE).

February 18, 1891

MRS. LLYE DUNNINGTON, wife of MR. L. H. DUNNINGTON, died at her residence on Washington Street after a prolonged illness... devoted wife and mother.

Scottsboro. MR. P(ETER) GULLATT, a highly respectable citizen of near Bellefonte was killed by a falling tree Monday.

Death of our oldest citizen. Yesterday the soul of MR. JAMES SCOTT winged its flight... MR. SCOTT resided in Huntsville all his life, and at the time of his death lacked but a few months of being 92 years of age. He was probably the oldest citizen of the county. The funeral will be held at the Methodist Church this afternoon. (Note: he evidently came as a child... there were no white people here until at least 1804. Death certificate gives: JAMES G. SCOTT, born in Virginia, aged 91 years 9 months 7 days, died in Huntsville February 17, 1891. Married.)

February 25, 1891

The remains of MR. W. A. LOVE, who died suddenly at his home in Madison Saturday afternoon, were interred in the Far ey burying ground near Madison yesterday morning...none knew him but esteemed him.

DR. F. L. ANDAMS of Tuskegee, brother of FRANK ADAMS (druggist), returns to his home. We are glad this young dental surgeon has decided to locate in Huntsville for the practice of his profession.

March 11, 1891

Friends of MR. ISAAC FIELDS will be shocked to learn of his being drowned. He ran a ferry at this place...on the opposite side of the river he got off the ferry, got on his horse and started home. The supposition is the horse ran off the bridge and he fell in Long Pond, and drowned. MR. FIELDS was a prosperous farmer, a good citizen, highly respected, and a good friend to the poor and needy. His wife died last April. He leaves three children, two boys and one daughter. (Whitesburg notes.)

March 18, 1891

Resolutions of respect. COL. LIONEL W. DAY, by the Huntsville Bar; also by the I. O. O. F.

August 12, 1891

The sad tidings of the death of DR. J. J. DEMENT flashed over the wires from Lithia Springs, Georgia where he died suddenly from heart failure. As a physician, DR. DEMENT stood at the head of his profession; he was a man of brains, a careful, a prudent and safe thinker, a man whose intelligence was impressive. As a husband and father he was generous, tender and loving. When the war cry sounded through our land, DR. DEMENT responded and for four years nursed the wounded and dying. Huntsville feels her loss...every household weeps....

Death of an Honorable and Beloved Citizen. The many friends of JUDGE WILLIAM H. MOORE were pained to learn last Friday evening of the death of this honorable and honored gentleman, which occurred at his residence near the city about six o'clock.... The deceased was in his 69th year and was a man who filled responsible positions, and who possessed the confidence and esteem of all who knew him. JUDGE MOORE was elected a member of the Board of the Huntsville Female College in the year 1850 and held that position up to his death. He was a man whom everyone liked. (See M/S "Some of the Descendants of JOHN MOORE, JR., MATTHEW MOORE and ANN MOORE HAMNER" etc. DAR Library. JUDGE WM. HENRY MOORE was a son of EDWARD MOORE and a nephew of GABRIEL MOORE)

Wilson's Chapel Church has lost a faithful member, her husband a devoted wife, her daughters a loving mother, her brothers a kind sister.

Macon, Mississippi. February 6, 1892. About 7:30 o'clock last night JOSEPH S. L. HAMBRICK a prominent farmer and stock raiser of this county, was assassinated while visiting his relative MR. E. R. CONNOR of this place. (He was sitting by the fire and the shot was fired through the window.) MR. HAMBRICK is a son of MR. CALVIN HAMBRICK of New Market, where the deceased lived until he moved to Mississippi, a few years ago.

February 17, 1892

Last Monday morning at his home near Hazel Green MR. WILLIAM McDAVID TAYLOR breathed his last. MR. TAYLOR, usually called "SHANKS

TAYLOR" was 70 years of age, and was a man who commanded the respect and esteem of all his acquaintances. He was the father of MR. SHELL TAYLOR.

MRS. P. HOLMES DRAKE, wife of COL. JAS. P. DRAKE, died at her residence near this city Thursday, February 11th, a native of Indianapolis, Indiana, but a resident of this county more than a score of years. (Death Record: PRISCILLA H. DRAKE, aged 79 years, 8 months, born in New York, died Huntsville February 11, 1892; widow).

A Tribute On the morning of February 1st the spirit of SAMUEL J. PETTUS (38 in Virginia) took its flight...he was, perhaps, one of the oldest residents of this county, having moved here from Halifax County, Virginia with his father's family in 1832. He died in his 81st year on the same place he had lived more than half a century. He was married in 1836 to MARTHA BROWN ALLEN (volume 24, page 1), in Limestone County, Alabama, who passed away only about two years ago. Having survived his other brothers a number of years he was especially kind to their sons. To his surviving son and daughter and grandchildren, we would say "Weep not..." (Death Record: SAMUEL J. PETTUS, born in Virginia aged 80 years, 7 months, 24 days died at Cluttsville February 1, 1892...widower)

March 2, 1892

March 30, 1892

MR. W. H. HALSEY, an old Huntsville boy, now at Atlanta, Georgia spent yesterday in our city, guest of his cousin MR. THOMAS W. SMITH.

Anniston Hot Blast. The Hot Blast had a visitor yesterday. REV. B(ENJ) D(ENNY) TURNER (39), one of the most interesting men of the day. He is nearing his 82nd year, moved here in 1832 when this was known as the Creek Purchase. In the fall of that year it was made Benton County. The old gentleman informs us Alexandria was then known as Coffeytown, and it was there our county site, Jacksonville, was first proposed. His present wife was an infant at one of his first sermons...he afterward married her to her first husband. Eleven years ago she became his wife, after a widowhood, and now he exhibits the wonderful curiosity of a smiling, prattling six months old boy and a hoary headed father four score years. He does not look over 60.

Died, at Decatur Wednesday. MORGAN T. McGAVOCK about 38; left two brothers, business men of Athens.

April 6, 1892

MRS. LIZZIE THOMPSON a most estimable lady, died Wednesday night at the residence of MRS. ROBERT H. WARE, Meridian Street.

A letter from Greenville, Texas dated March 25, 1892, stating "Lately I came across the muster roll of CAPT. PEYTON S. WYATT's Co. of Huntsville, Alabama. Volunteers who came to Texas, in December, 1835 I think, to assist...in throwing off the despotism of Mexico. Over 56 years have passed and it is doubtful if a single one survives for most of them were with FANNIN at Goliad and were massacred. Among the names is that of F. PETRESWICK who distinguished himself as an Artillerist.... Another of the same name, A. PETRESWICK joined this Company February 25, 1836. The two are supposed to be brothers. GEORGE THAYER, 2nd Sergeant, whose name was W. J. THAYER was another to win fame in the battle only to lose his life in the massacre. J. TYLER was JAMES TYLER, I believe. A. G. LEMOND was transferred to CAPT. DUVALL's Kentucky Company and was also killed in the massacre. Muster Roll, WYATT's Company. B. T. BRADFORD, First Lieutenant, OLIVER SMITH, 2nd Lieutenant, WM. WALLACE, 1st Seargent, GEORGE THAYER, 2nd Seargent, HENRY SHELKY, 3rd Seargent, J. D. RAINS, 4th Seargent, OLIVER BROWN, Ordnance Master, ALLEN PETERS, musician. Privates: GABRIEL BUSH, JAMES CORNELIUS, N. DEBRISKI, HENRY DIXON, T. B. FRIZEL, J. H. FISHER, ED. D. FULLER, FRED GIBENRATH, JAS. HAMILTON, E. D. HARRISON, J. KIRTIKY, M. MIXON, WM. A. McLENNER, J. F. MORGAN, F. PETRESWICK, WM. S. PARKER, CHAS. PATTON, A. PETRESWICK, JOHN R. PARKER, WM. R. SIMPSON, J. C. STEWART, FRED SIVERMAN, ALLEN WRENN, J. TYLER, A. G. LEMOND. Those whose names I have called have estates in Texas, granted for their heirs, after the war...I have been in Texas over 40 years. FRANK TEMPLETON.

Whitesburg. Died--MRS. ELIZABETH PARKER, at her home in Gardener Settlement. She left three children, two daughters and one son. Funeral services were held Sunday by her pastor for more than 40 years and remains laid in Ebenezer Burying Ground. April 20, 1892

It is with profound regret we announce the death of MRS. SUSAN C. ERSKINE on Sunday last, April 17th at the residence of her son-in-law, MRS. JAMES H. HASTIN. MRS. ERSKINE was in the 88th year of her age, and one of the oldest residents of Huntsville. She had lived here since early childhood, her father, COL. ALBERT RUSSELL, a Pennsylvanian by birth and LT. COL. in the Revolutionary Army having moved from Loudon County, Virginia* to Alabama in 1816 when she was quite young. She was born near Leesburg, Virginia in the year 1805, her mother's maiden name being ANN FRANCES HOOE. In the year 1820 she was married to DR. ALEX ERSKINE whose name has long been identified with the history of Huntsville as one of its earliest and most prominent physicians. By this marriage there was a large family of children of whom most of the surviving members are yet residents of this place. She was of Scotch Irish descent, a Presbyterian by ancestry, and has been for over 65 years a member of the Presbyterian Church of this city.... Peaceful be her last sleep! (* DAR Lineage Book 142, page 132 gives ALBERT RUSSEL's rank in the Revolution as Lieutenant only. He lived in Maury County, Tennessee for a time, before coming to Madison County, having gone to Maury County in 1807.)

April 20, 1892

DR. BRYSON received a dispatch from the officers of the Presbyterian Church at Montgomery informing him of the death of DR. (DEWITT) BURKHEAD Monday evening and asking him to conduct the funeral service. DR. BURKHEAD had charge of the Presbyterian Church here from June, 1876 to May, 1879. He was a native of North Carolina, a graduate of the Theological Seminary, Columbia, South Carolina, Chaplain in the Confederate Army and for several years pastor at Athens, Georgia. From here he went to Paris, Texas and spent several years. His last charge was Montgomery, Alabama. His family will have the sympathy of friends in this community.

April 27, 1892

With sorrow we announce the death of ARTHUR HARRIS, only child of DR. GEORGE M. HARRIS, at his residence Sunday night. "Whatever sins he was guilty of were only sins against himself." He was devoted to the wife and baby he leaves behind. (Death Record: ARTHUR LEE HARRIS, aged 35, born in Alabama, "no occupation," died in Huntsville April 25, 1892...married.)

May 18, 1892

December 31, 1893

A dispatch from Dallas, Texas brings news of the death at that place, on the 13th instant, of JUDGE ALECK WHITE aged 78 years. This is our own "Bonnie Blue Flag White." JUDGE WHITE gained this appellation by his famous apostrophe to the Confederate Flag when the state seceded... in the dark days of reconstruction he went against us being one of the leaders... in the Legislature of 1872. In 1874 he was appointed by GENERAL GRANT to fill an unexpired term as Chief Justice of the Territory of Utah. He afterward moved to Dallas and practiced law. He was a brilliant, but erratic, man.

Departed this life on 26th February last at MAJ. ROBERT DAVIE's, SELTON (should be SHELTON) WELBOURNE in his 41st year, son of MAJ. ISAAC WELBOURNE. MR. WELBOURNE was attempting to cover a corn crib and unfortunately fell across a rib pole on the house and was so seriously injured by the fall that he expired in about one hour--before he could have the satisfaction of bidding adieu to his wife and little children. MR. WELBOURNE had lately emigrated to this country from the state of Georgia, where he held many responsible offices, both civil and military and discharged the duties of them with credit to himself and honor to the country. In fact, such was the confidence of the community in him that he solicited no appointment that was not promptly and almost immediately and unanimously conferred upon him.

In the death of such a man, we may well say, society has lost one of her brightest gems.

MR. WELBOURNE has left a disconsolate wife and six little children and a numerous host of friends and acquaintances to mourn their irreparable loss.

Died in this county on Friday the 20th, COLONEL LITTLEBERRY ROBINSON, an old and respectable resident of this county (widow was PAULINE--children: JOHN, MARTHA, WM., CHERRY married RODAH H____, FANNY married JOHN DICKERSON; CHERRY dead in 1834). (In Volume 35, page 11, change that date on LITTLEBERRY ROBINSON to 1822. You show the paper just before this as 1822, and I am positive it is a typographical error, as in ORC 2, page 362 24 September 1822. LITTLEBERRY ROBINSON, late of this county, has died without will and the widow of said deceased has waived her right of administration on said estate and signified to the court her wish that WILLIAM PATTON should administer in her place. (Bond, $50,000, with HENRY COOK and RODAH HORTON, securities.)

Also...that tombstone of EZEKIEL MOORE and wife MARY JONES (its page 84 of the T/S volume, and I think is in some others too, was copied by either H or BOYCE while on a survey--and 1855 is wrong--it's 1852, for her administrator was appointed then and the PSL says she died April, 1852, when TS says May. The 1852 newspaper notes don't list either her death or that of WM. ROBINSON; I guess they weren't subscribers.)

Another young hero gone. JAMES W. FRANKS, son of BRITTON FRANKS, fell mortally wounded at Parkers Cross Roads December 31, 1862.

COLONEL GEORGE WALTON, son of one of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence died in Petersburg, Virginia a few days since aged 73. He was formerly Territorial Governor of Florida and later in life Mayor of Mobile. He was father of the amiable and accomplished MRS. OCTAVIA WALTON LeVERT of this city. Mobile Register and Advertiser. Obituary: COL. GEORGE WALTON died in Petersburg Virginia on the 3rd instant. He was born in Augusta, Georgia during the Revolution; he had in his illustrious father, the Signer of the Declaration of Independence and a gallant officer and eminent jurist, and in his accomplished mother (MISS CAMPER) who has been well styled one of the heroines of that trying period the best exemplars of intellectual, social and patriotic worth. He graduated at Princeton College, and when barely of age (1812) was elected to the Georgia Legislature. In 1821 he was appointed Secretary of the Territory of Florida while JACKSON was governor, and succeeded him in that office; in his administration founded the city of Tallahassee and bestowed its name. He removed to Mobile in 1837 or 1838 and was elected mayor. For several years he has resided in Washington and Virginia. In early manhood he married MISS SALLIE MINGE WALKER, daughter of an eminent lawyer of Georgia, who preceded her husband to the grave by two years. They had two children, MAJOR ROBERT WALTON, whose untimely death bore to the tomb promises of a brilliant career, and our fair townswoman.

HUNTSVILLE WEEKLY INDEPENDENCE

DR. WILLIAM TYLER YOUNG born in James City County, Virginia November 7, 1796, died... (I found that death notice.) 1852. He married ELLEN GORDON STEWART born November 11, 1800, died April 4, 1849. (doesn't quite agree with date we have, in a May 4th paper, saying she died the 2nd.) She was born in Petersburg, Virginia. She was daughter of ROBERT STEWART born in Scotland April 4, 1756, died in Madison County, Alabama November 17, 1840. He married AMY GOODWIN RAINES born January 14, 1773 in Sussex County, Virginia, died October 7, 1840, Madison County, Alabama.. The STEWARTS were apparently living with DR. YOUNG in 1830. DR. YOUNG died at house of CHAS. E. COLLIER, he was apparently father of AMY RAINES COLLIER who married WM. HY PICKETT. JAMES EDWARD COLLIER, I believe it was, married ELIZABETH GOODWYN STEWART...sounds very much as if they were sisters of ELLEN GORDON, doesn't it? I don't find ROBERT STEWART in the S's. Is he on the master index? Probably buried in Collier graveyard as not found in Triana.

Make a note--DR. WM. T. YOUNG was WM. TYLER YOUNG from Augusta, Georgia. His daughter ELLEN T. married JOHN JAMES WARD...folks from Chatt hunting them the other day...she was a lovely person. Just started it recently and having loads of fun. She was all thrilled over

FRANCIS E. WARD's estate, but he was mostly interested in trying to find out if J. J. WARD built MRS. BOLLING's old house. I knew he was killed in the war--it was at the Battle of Atlanta. After I came home I found the p of a to FRANCIS E. WARD of Martin County, North Carolina, and his TS for them. Oh--you want the address for your magazine... WILLIAM I. REILLEY, 407 Sweetbrier Avenue, Chattanooga, Tennessee.

GEORGE's death date from MRS. SMITH's notes--26 August 1847; so that PM I am working on ought to show either pro of will or appointment of administrator. I am confident if a will, it was in lost Will Book 8. I am working on PM 1843-47. I see I worked "S" 1850/53. Wonder if 1847/50 is lost? Probably. They must have lettered those books at random. There is the 1st or C I don't have but you say you do, from MRS. SMITH. I copied 1830/34 - 1835/40 - 1840/43, now 1843/47, then would come the 1848/50 gap--and then the 1st lettered one "S" is 1850/53...then comes "D" 1854/56...then "T" 1857/60...and then starts over with "A" 1865/66. I reckon if there was one 1860/65 it burned. I'll take a look for 1847/50 as I feel sure that would be estates that were in Book 8. We will have to check the ones mentioned in this 1847 book versus WB 7, and anything not in it must have been in 8.

Since MRS. HA---(faded) is so eager to learn GEO. M.'s parents, and he was evidently close kin to THOMAS C. (perhaps a brother), should I refer her to MR. NOLAN...if he worked on THOS. C.'s family, may have his ancestry. If so, give me the address. She said an ancestor said to be COUNTESS CHAPPELL. The name has come down in the THOMAS MALONE family. I think they were the THOMAS (H?) MALONES of "Recluseville" who later went to Nashville. I would like to know if he was a brother to GEORGE. The COUNTESS may have been a common ancestress." Hmmm...wonder if that's old Nashville of HV's ancestress? Once I had something you sent, that I though indicated the Tennessee father of Nashville and HARPER and remember getting it out, to tell FRANCES DAVIS to check it but now I can't find it any more. Oh for a filer!)

In 1842 joined the M. E. Church.... (Letter from MR. d'ARMAND--February 27, 1952--"I have identified BENJ. DUARMON as a son of HUGH DEYARMON, SENIOR, of Uniontown, Fayette County, Pennsylvania. Also BENJ. had 3 brothers: ALEXANDER, HUGH, JR. and MELHERD. 1830 census for Madison County, Alabama shows him as head of a household --- (faded) only 3 m 20-30; 1 m 15-20. These correspond to ages of his brothers. Also, I have a notation that his father died at age of 45 by a fall from a horse. His 1st child was born 1798, so we can assume he was grown which would bring his death before 1830. It is possible and probable that BENJ.'s younger brothers were with him temporarily in 1830. A family letter says that a nephew saw BENJ. in Uniontown in 1835; probably on a visit. His title as a doctor also agrees as another letter said he went at an early age to Knoxville to study medicine and later became an M.D. MRS. VA P. LIDWIN, Crystal, Texas 1957 says EMILY J. AULD wife of BENJ. DUARMON was daughter of JOLIN and NANCY (ANN JACKSON) AULD; granddaughter of DR. ISAAC and MARY JACKSON of Madison County. She was widow of BENJ. DUARMON, who was dead in 1837. ROSCOE d'ARMAND says "I have identified BENJ. DEARMON as belonging to the family of HUGH DeGARMON of -50-Pennsylvania."

September 8, 1881

MRS. SNODGRASS, wife of SAML SNODGRASS of Baski and daughter of MRS. ADALINE and the late H. P. RIVERS, became the mother of 3 little boys weighing about 6 pounds each.

MRS. MATILDA HENDERSON (60 in North Carolina; MALINDA in census) died at residence of her son, MR. J. M. FINCH, some 3 miles south of Suggsville this county 4th instant at 91 years. MRS. HENDERSON was one of early settlers of this county and knew much of history. She was born in Halifax County, North Carolina 22 December 1789 and came to Clarke county 1810 and married HITE FINCH in January 1811. In 1823 she married NATHANIEL HENDERSON and in 1844 again became a widow. She left many relatives and friends.

MR. WM. FLUKER (13 in Alabama; son of GEO.) of Boiling Springs, Wilcox County, Alabama has sent a bundle of flax that was grown by MR. ALEX. CAMMACK on Bassett's Creek near Suggsville this county in year 1815 or 1816. We cannot realize this flax is 65 years old! For many years MR. FLUKES was a resident of this county and the ashes of his parents sleep in our soil.

Died in Lower Peach Tree at 4:30 a.m., little ELLA POME, daughter of D. C. McCASKEY, JR. and MRS. ANNA McCASKEY at 1 year 23 days.
